SECTION III – RISK FACTORS

An investment in Equity Shares involves a high degree of risk. Prospective investors should carefully consider all the information in this Red Herring Prospectus, including the risks and uncertainties described below before making an investment in the Equity Shares.

We have described the risks and uncertainties that we believe are material, but these risks and uncertainties may not be the only risks relevant to us, the Equity Shares, or the industry in which we currently operate or propose to operate. Unless specified or quantified in the relevant risk factor below, we are not in a position to quantify the financial or other implication of any of the risks mentioned in this section. If any or a combination of the following risks actually occur, or if any of the risks that are currently not known or deemed to be not relevant or material now actually occur or become material in the future, our business, cash flows, prospects, financial condition and results of operations could suffer, the trading price of the Equity Shares could decline, and you may lose all or part of your investment.

To obtain a more detailed understanding of our business and operations, see this section in conjunction with the sections titled “Our Industry”, “Our Business” and “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations”, respectively, as well as other financial and statistical information contained in this Red Herring Prospectus. Unless otherwise indicated or unless the context requires otherwise, our financial information used in this section are derived from our Restated Financial Statements. In making an investment decision, prospective investors must rely on their own examination of our business and the terms of the Issue, including the merits and risks involved. Prospective investors should consult their tax, financial and legal advisors about the particular consequences to them of an investment in our Equity Shares.

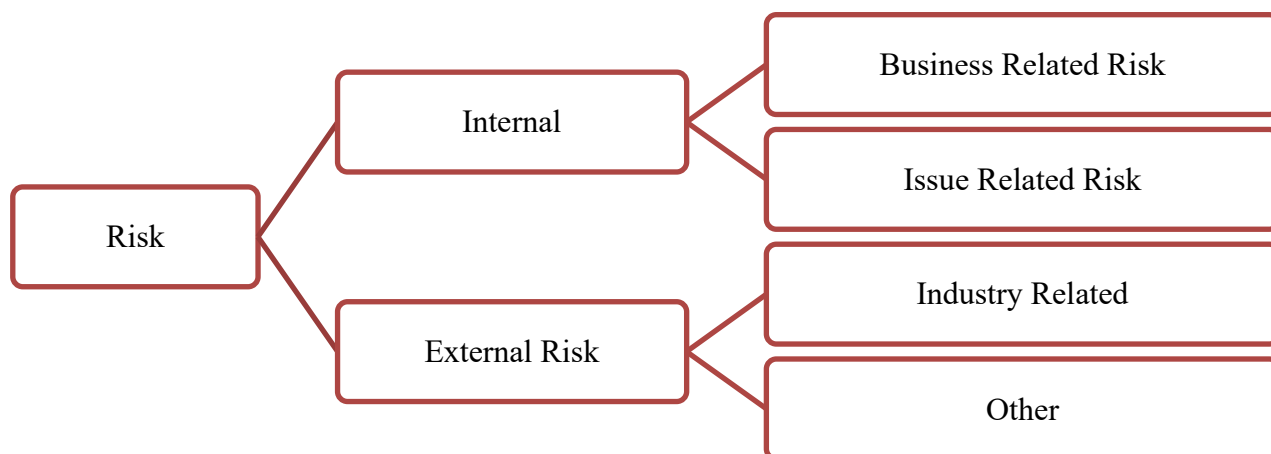

This Red Herring Prospectus also contains forward-looking statements that involve risks, assumptions, estimates and uncertainties. Our actual results could differ materially from those anticipated in these forward-looking statements as a result of certain factors, including but not limited to the considerations described below. For details, refer to the chapter “Forward-Looking Statements”.

Materiality

The Risk factors have been determined on the basis of their materiality, which has been decided on the basis of following factors:

- Some events may not be material individually but may be material when considered collectively.
- Some events may have an impact which is qualitative though not quantitative.
- Some events may not be material at present but may have a material impact in the future.

Classification of Risk Factors

INTERNAL RISK FACTORS

- Our business is heavily reliant on Agent channel sales, which constitute a significant portion of our total revenue. Any disruption to Agent channel sales operations, changes in consumer preferences, or inability to effectively grow our Digital channel sales could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial performance, results of operations, and future growth prospects.

The Company's revenue is predominantly derived from Agent channel sales, which account for a significant majority of its total income. For the stub period ended on July 31, 2025 and for the periods ended March 31, 2025, March 31, 2024, and March 31, 2023, Agent channel sales contributed 86.17% , 85.46%, 86.03%, and 87.79%, respectively, of the total revenue. In contrast, Digital channel sales accounted for only 13.83% , 14.54%, 13.97%, and 12.21%, indicating a limited growth trajectory in this segment.

The breakdown of our sales by revenue model on is as follows (Standalone):

(Rs. In Lakhs)

Particulars	July 31 2025		March 31 2025		March 31 2024		March 31 2023
	Amount	In %	Amount	In %	Amount	In %	Amount	In %
Digital Channel	1,182.22	13.83%	3,238.05	14.54%	2,646.40	13.97%	1,647.30	12.21%
Agent Channel	7,364.50	86.17%	19,026.08	85.46%	16,303.40	86.03%	11,845.30	87.79%

Any termination of relationships with one or more of these key Lending Partners, or any significant reduction in the volume of business they conduct with us, could materially and adversely affect our financial performance. Additionally, if these Lending Partners unilaterally alter the terms and conditions of our collaborations such as revising revenue-sharing arrangements, modifying credit policies, or imposing stricter compliance requirements it could negatively impact our profitability and operational flexibility. Our ability to replace such partners promptly with equally significant and reliable alternatives may be limited, further exacerbating the adverse impact on our business and financial stability.

- The Company has not availed insurance coverage for cyber security, which exposes it to significant financial and operational risks.

Approximately 15% of our revenue is generated through our online operations, making our digital platforms critical to our business performance. Any cyberattack, data breach, or other cybersecurity incident could adversely impact our business, financial condition, and results of operations.

As a participant in the digital financial industry, we are inherently exposed to cybersecurity risks, including unauthorized access, hacking, ransomware attacks, phishing, malware infections, and other malicious activities. To mitigate these risks, we have implemented a range of preventive measures, including:

ISO/IEC 27001;2022 certification, ensuring adherence to recognized information security standards;

- Multi-factor authentication and role-based access controls to limit unauthorized internal or external access;
- Data encryption at rest and in transit, protecting sensitive customer and business information;
- Periodic employee training and awareness programs to reduce risks related to phishing and social engineering; and
- Data backup and disaster recovery protocols to ensure business continuity in case of an incident.

To date, we have not experienced any material cyberattack or significant data breach that has affected our operations or compromised customer data. However, there can be no assurance that these measures will be sufficient to fully prevent or mitigate future cyber incidents, as threats continue to evolve in sophistication and frequency.

The Company does not currently maintain insurance coverage specifically for cybersecurity risks. In the event of a cyberattack or data breach, our online operations and revenue streams could be severely disrupted. This may lead to substantial financial losses, increased operational costs, regulatory investigations or penalties, potential legal liabilities, and reputational harm, any of which could materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition, and operational results.

- Our business is critically reliant on partnerships with Banks and Non-Banking Financial Companies (NBFCs) for the distribution of financial products, and any disruption to these relationships or non-compliance with associated contractual obligations could adversely impact our operations, financial performance, and growth prospects.

Our business heavily depends on our relationships with Banks and Non-Banking Financial Companies (NBFCs), as these partnerships enable us to distribute a wide range of financial products, including secured and unsecured loans, personal loans, business loans, and insurance services. The termination or renegotiation of these relationships could significantly impact our operations, financial performance, and future prospects.

Several risks threaten these critical partnerships. Banks and NBFCs may choose to bypass our services by developing their own customer acquisition strategies or enhancing their digital platforms, reducing the value they see in collaborating with us. Additionally, partners may renegotiate the terms of agreements, resulting in less favorable financial conditions for our Company, such as reduced fee arrangements, which could adversely affect our profit margins. A complete cessation of cooperation by a major partner, particularly one accounting for a significant portion of our revenue, would severely disrupt our operations and hinder our ability to offer financial products and services.

Additionally, our agreements with these partners include restrictive covenants relating to service standards, data security, and compliance obligations. Breach of these covenants could result in penalties, reputational harm, or unilateral termination of agreements by our partners. Such termination would not only affect our operations but could also impair our ability to secure or maintain similar partnerships in the future.

Maintaining these partnerships requires us to align closely with our partners' needs, ensuring efficient credit monitoring, consumer engagement, and compliance with all contractual obligations. Failure to meet these expectations could weaken our relationships and reduce partners' willingness to collaborate with us, leading to diminished revenue, operational challenges, and a weakened financial condition.

To mitigate these risks, we strive to strengthen existing relationships through regular communication, alignment with partner strategies, and the enhancement of the value we provide. However, the inherent uncertainty of these partnerships, coupled with the risks associated with restrictive covenants, underscores the importance of sustained compliance and collaboration for our long-term business prospects. For further details, please refer to the section titled "Our Business" on page 136 of this DRHP.

Any decrease in the lending volume, termination of agreements, or unfavorable changes in the terms of cooperation with our top Lending Partners could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial performance, and growth prospects. Additionally, a shift in the strategic priorities or financial stability of these Lending Partners could lead to a reduction in our revenue, strain our relationships, and limit our ability to diversify or expand our Lending Partner base.

Furthermore, reliance on such concentrated sources of revenue makes our business vulnerable to market changes, economic shifts, or regulatory developments that impact these Lending Partners, potentially causing volatility in our earnings and affecting the stability of our cash flow. Therefore, we must mitigate this concentration risk by working to diversify our Lending Partner base and strengthen relationships with existing partners.

We confirm that, to the best of our knowledge, there have been no terminations, material modifications, or adverse changes in the terms of our agreements with any of our top Lending Partners, including Banks and Non-Banking Financial Companies (NBFCs), that could materially impact our operations, financial performance, or growth prospects. Further, we are not aware of any circumstances that would reasonably be expected to result in such termination or adverse modification.

4. The proper functioning of our online platform and technology infrastructure is essential to our business. Any disruption to our IT systems and infrastructure could materially affect our ability to maintain the satisfactory performance of our platform and deliver consistent services to our users.

The industries that we operate in are characterized by technological evolution, changes in Consumer requirements and preferences, introduction of new services and products adopting new technologies, and the emergence of new industry standards and practices, any of which could render our existing technologies and systems less competitive than those used by other market participants or obsolete. The reliability, accessibility and satisfactory performance of our IT systems are critical to our success, our ability to attract and retain Consumers and our ability to maintain a satisfactory user experience and Consumer service. Our systems may experience service interruptions or degradation or other performance problems because of hardware and software defects or malfunctions, unexpected high volume of transactions, distributed denial-of-service and other cyberattacks, infrastructure changes, power losses, disruptions in telecommunications services, unauthorized access, fraud, military or political conflicts, terrorist attacks, legal or regulatory takedowns, phishing, computer viruses, ransomware, malware, or other events. Our systems may also be subject to break-ins, sabotage, theft, intentional acts of vandalism or our employees engaging in unauthorized shadow IT activities. We may be liable for all costs and damages, as we would not be entitled to any indemnification or warranty that may have been available if we had obtained such systems or software from third-party providers.

Although, there have been no material events relating to this risk factor as of the date of this Red Herring Prospectus, there can be no assure that such events may not occur in the future.

5. Our banking partners and financial institutions are regulated by the Reserve Bank of India (“RBI”) and any change in the RBI’s policies, decisions and regulatory framework could adversely affect our business, cash flows, results of operations and financial condition.

Our company derives a substantial portion of its revenue from partnerships with banks and Non-Banking Financial Companies (NBFCs), making the success of our operations dependent on these relationships. These partnerships enable us to distribute a variety of financial products, including secured and unsecured loans, personal loans, business loans, and insurance services. The banking partners or financial institutions we work with are obligated to adhere to rules and comply with the requirements set by different government bodies, such as the Reserve Bank of India (RBI). If the RBI introduces new rules or regulations regarding our business arrangements with these partners, including imposing conditions that require us to modify or adjust our business activities or obtain authorizations, it may adversely affect our business operations and future prospects. Currently, our banking partners and financial institutions hold the requisite authorizations and licenses under applicable laws, and we are not required to obtain any authorizations or licenses from the RBI for our business activity of selling and distributing financial products. However, if there is a change in laws or regulations that requires us to obtain such authorizations or licenses from the RBI, we cannot assure you that we will be able to obtain them in a timely manner, or at all. Failure to obtain the relevant authorizations or licenses from the RBI or our inability to comply with the requisite procedures could result in the loss of our ability to operate the relevant business, which could adversely affect our financial condition, results of operations, and prospects. Additionally, adverse changes in the credit policies of our Lending Partners or regulatory changes that limit access to capital could significantly impact our growth plans and operational capabilities.

Although, there have been no material events relating to this risk factor as of the date of this Red Herring Prospectus, there can be no assure that such events may not occur in the future.

6. Our company has not complied with certain statutory provisions of the Companies Act. Such non-compliance may attract penalties and other actions against our Company and its Directors which could impact the financial position of us to that extent

Our Company has not complied with certain statutory provisions under the Companies Act, 2013. Such non-compliances may attract penalties or other regulatory actions against our Company and its Directors, which could adversely affect our financial position to the extent of such penalties or actions.

During an internal compliance review, our Company identified certain irregularities and administrative lapses in corporate governance and statutory reporting obligations, spanning multiple financial years. These issues primarily relate to discrepancies in disclosures in statutory filings, particularly with respect to the reporting of Board meetings in Form MGT-7 (Annual Return) as compared to the disclosures made in the Directors’ Report. The details are as follows:

S. No	Period	Particulars	Non-compliance/Delayed compliance	Fine/Penalties Imposed	Steps taken
1	2020-21	Discrepancy in the number of meetings submitted in MGT 7, Director's Report	Date of Meeting - 30-09-2020 and 04-01-2021, These Board meeting Dates are not reflecting in MGT 7	The adjudication is in process. Fine will be levied later	GNL 1 has been filed for the adjudication process with SRN N27314830
2	2021-22	Discrepancy in the number of meetings submitted in MGT 7, Director's Report	Date of Meeting - 01-04-2021, These Board meeting Dates are not reflecting in MGT 7	The adjudication is in process. Fine will be levied later	GNL 1 has been filed for the adjudication process with SRN N27314830

Our Company has initiated corrective actions to strengthen compliance processes, including filing the required forms for adjudication, responding to notices, and enhancing internal checks to prevent recurrence of such lapses. While these irregularities have not had a material adverse impact on our operations to date, any penalties imposed by the Registrar of Companies or other regulatory authorities may impact our financial position to the extent of such penalties.

7. Our business operations rely on various software solutions, including open-source and third-party components. Any vulnerabilities, licensing non-compliance, or discontinuation of support for such software could adversely impact our technology infrastructure and business continuity.

We depend on proprietary, open-source, and commercially licensed software to operate our platform, manage customer data, and integrate with lender systems. If any such software contains security vulnerabilities, coding errors, or becomes unsupported by the provider, our technology systems may face interruptions, cybersecurity threats, or increased costs of replacement. In addition, non-compliance with licensing terms of open-source or third-party software could result in legal action or operational restrictions.

Any of these factors may disrupt our business processes, impair service delivery, and negatively impact our financial performance. Although, there have been no material events relating to this risk factor as of the date of this Red Herring Prospectus, there can be no assure that such events may not occur in the future.

8. Our company has experienced delays and defaults in the payment of statutory dues, including taxes, duties, and other government levies.

The Company previously faced delays in meeting its statutory payment obligations, including taxes, duties, and contributions to regulatory bodies such as the EPFO, ESI, and GST. These delays primarily stemmed from working capital shortages during the initial stages of operations. To address these challenges, the Company implemented significant measures, including improving its working capital cycle and securing external financing.

However, there remains a residual risk that similar challenges could arise in the future due to unforeseen circumstances, such as working capital constraints, potential regulatory penalties, economic uncertainties, and operational inefficiencies. A table detailing instances of past delayed payments is provided below for reference:

Although the Company has resolved past issues and implemented measures to ensure timely payment of statutory liabilities Investors are advised to consider this historical context when evaluating the company.

Reason for Delay and Steps Taken to Address It

In the initial stages of operations, the Company experienced delays in paying statutory liabilities due to a shortage of working capital. This shortage arose from limited available funds, which constrained our ability to meet financial obligations of timely payment of taxes. The primary factors contributing to the working capital shortage were slow customer payments and high operational costs. Additionally, as an SME, our access to external financing—both equity and debt—was restricted.

To address this issue, the Company implemented several measures:

1. We successfully raised debt financing from banks, NBFCs, and other lenders as the Company expanded in size.
2. We undertook significant efforts to improve the working capital cycle by managing receivables more efficiently and optimizing expenses.

These steps enabled us to resolve our working capital constraints and stabilize our financial position. As a result, the Company has ensured that all statutory liabilities are now paid on time, and we remain committed to maintaining full compliance with statutory obligations.

9. Instances of mis-selling, document discrepancies, or improper handling of customer data by our agents or Direct Selling Agents (“DSAs”) could expose us to regulatory penalties, partner claims, or reputational damage.

We rely on our extensive agent network and DSAs for customer acquisition and document handling. Despite providing regular training, implementing monitoring measures, and maintaining strict operational guidelines, we cannot assure that every agent or DSA will adhere to our prescribed standards at all times. Any mis-selling of loan products, document discrepancies, or improper handling of customer information could result in regulatory scrutiny, penalties, claims by our lending partners, and loss of customer trust. Such incidents may also adversely affect our brand image, customer relationships, and overall business performance.

Although, there have been no material events relating to this risk factor as of the date of this Red Herring Prospectus, there can be no assure that such events may not occur in the future.

10. Concentration Risk from Dependency on a Few Key Lending Partners May Adversely Affect Our Business.

Our Company derives a significant portion of its revenue from a limited number of key Lending Partners. For instance, as of March 31, 2025, the top 1 Lending Partner alone accounted for 20.10% of our total revenue, while the top 5 Lending Partners represented 48.51%, and the top 10 Lending Partners contributed 65.99%. This concentration of revenue from a small group of Lending Partners exposes us to risks associated with the loss or reduction in business from any of these key partners.

Summary Table of Revenue in terms of our Top 10, Top 5, Top 3 and Top 1(Standalone).

11. Our platform may use algorithms and automated processes for credit assessment and product recommendations. Any perceived or actual bias in these algorithms could lead to regulatory scrutiny, reputational harm, and potential legal liabilities.

We use proprietary algorithms and automated decision-making tools to assess customer creditworthiness and generate personalized loan recommendations. These systems are trained on historical data, which may inadvertently include errors or biases. If these models produce outcomes perceived as discriminatory or inaccurate, regulators, lending partners, or customers may challenge our practices. Increasing regulatory focus on transparency and fairness in algorithmic decision-making could subject us to additional compliance requirements or audits. Any such developments may harm our reputation, lead to legal liabilities, and require significant resources to rectify.

Although, there have been no material events relating to this risk factor as of the date of this Red Herring Prospectus, there can be no assure that such events may not occur in the future.

12. We have experienced negative cash flows in the past. Any such negative cash flows in the future could affect our business, results of operations and prospects.

Our Company has reported certain negative cash flows from operating activities, investing activities and financing activities in the previous years as per the Restated Financial Statements and the same are summarized as under:

(In Lakhs)

Particulars	July 31 2025	March 31 2025	March 31 2024	March 31 2023
Net Cash from Operating Activities	(249.17)	(1333.08)	(209.76)	268.82
Net Cash from Investing Activities	(60.27)	(145.74)	(165.83)	(145.90)
Net Cash used in Financing Activities	120.54	2,036.73	387.39	82.92

Cash flow of a company is a key indicator to show the extent of cash generated from operations to meet capital expenditure, pay dividends, repay loans and make new investments without raising finance from external resources. If our Company is not able to generate sufficient cash flows, it may affect our business and financial operations. For further please refer chapter titled “Restated Financial Information” beginning on Page 188 of this Red Herring Prospectus.

13. A significant portion of our customer acquisition may depend on digital marketing and search engine visibility. Any changes in search engine algorithms, increased advertising costs, or restrictions on digital marketing could adversely affect our ability to attract customers.

Our digital channel relies on online marketing strategies such as search engine optimization, search engine marketing, social media campaigns, and targeted advertising to acquire customers. Search engines and digital platforms frequently update their algorithms and advertising policies, which may reduce our website visibility or increase the cost of acquiring leads. Any restrictions on digital marketing, heightened competition for online ad space, or reduced effectiveness of our campaigns could adversely affect customer acquisition, revenue growth, and profitability.

Although, there have been no material events relating to this risk factor as of the date of this Red Herring Prospectus, there can be no assurance that such events may not occur in the future.

14. Increase in Consumer Complaints May Damage Our Reputation, Cause Operational Disruptions, and Affect Financial Performance.

As a retail loan aggregation platform relying on a hybrid model of digital and agent-led services, our business is heavily dependent on maintaining strong customer relationships and ensuring high levels of customer satisfaction. Any increase in consumer complaints could harm our reputation and negatively affect our operations and financial performance.

Customer dissatisfaction may arise from factors such as miscommunication, delays in loan disbursement, inaccurate loan information, technical glitches on our digital platform, or perceived mis-selling by our agents. These issues could lead to an increase in consumer complaints, adversely affecting our brand image and potentially attracting regulatory scrutiny or legal actions.

Failure to promptly and effectively address customer grievances may erode consumer trust, reduce customer retention, and make it challenging to attract new clients. Persistent complaints could also jeopardize our relationships with lending partners, including banks and NBFCs, who may view such complaints as a reputational risk, leading to reduced collaboration or unfavorable terms.

To mitigate this risk, we must maintain robust customer service standards, provide effective training to our agents and Support staff, and ensure swift resolution of complaints. Safeguarding customer satisfaction and trust is critical to preserving our competitive position and supporting our financial and operational performance.

The Company has not experienced any material instances of customer dissatisfaction, miscommunication, delays in loan disbursement, inaccurate loan information, technical glitches, or perceived mis-selling by agents to date. However, there can be no assurance that such issues will not arise in the future.

15. We do not own the registered office, corporate office including branches from which we carry out our business activities. If there are issues such as non-renewal of rent agreements, disputes regarding the use of these premises, or disruptions in business operations due to actions by our business associates, our business and operational results could be adversely affected.

Our registered office and other branches from which we carry out our business activities, are being taken by us on rent. In the event of termination/non-renewal of said agreements, we may be required to vacate the said premises which may cause disruption in our corporate affairs and business and impede our effective operations which could temporarily impact on our business operations until we get suitable alternative premises. For details on the duration of existing rent/ lease agreements for our premises, please refer to the section titled “Our Business” beginning on page 136 of this Red Herring Prospectus. In addition, agreements pertaining to the lease/ rent have irregularities of enforceability, such as non-registration of agreement and inadequate payment of stamp duty, which may affect the value of the relevant agreements in specific performance or other injunctive procedures in a court of law, could impair our operations. Further, it may result in levy of penal charges, in case cognizance being taken by concerned authorities. There can be no assurance that we will, in the future, be able to renew the agreements for the existing locations on same or similar terms, or will be able to find alternate locations for the offices on similar terms favorable to us, or at all. We may also fail to negotiate the renewal of our rent agreements for our premises, either on commercially acceptable terms or at all, which could result in increased rental rates for subsequent renewals or searching of new premises, affecting our financial condition and operations. In the event that the rent agreement is terminated or they are not renewed on commercially acceptable terms, we may suffer a disruption in our Business operations which could materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations.

Although, there have been no material events relating to this risk factor as of the date of this Red Herring Prospectus, there can be no assurance that such events may not occur in the future.

16. Our business is subject to seasonality. Lower revenues in the festive period of any Fiscal may adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

Our business is subject to seasonal fluctuations in demand for our financial products, with increased activity typically observed before major festivals like Diwali, during wedding seasons, and at the end of the financial year. These periods of heightened demand can result in variability in revenue and cash flow, which may affect our financial performance. The timing and impact of these seasonal trends are influenced by external factors such as consumer behavior, market conditions, and economic cycles. Any disruption to these seasonal patterns or changes in demand could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial performance, results of operations, and future growth prospects.

17. Our reliance on handling and processing sensitive data, coupled with the growing sophistication of cyber threats, exposes us to significant risks associated with data security, unauthorized access, potential breaches, and disruptions in our information technology infrastructure, all of which could materially impact our operations, reputation, and financial stability.

Our business involves processing and handling large volumes of personal, transactional, financial, and other sensitive data provided by consumers, clients, and third-party providers. This data is shared with our lending partners and insurers to fulfill our contractual obligations. As such, our operations are inherently exposed to risks associated with data security, cyber threats, and disruptions in our information technology systems.

There are numerous laws regulating the privacy, storage, sharing, use, and protection of personally identifiable information. While we have implemented robust privacy policies and technical measures to safeguard data, we cannot guarantee that these measures will be deemed adequate under applicable regulations. Any failure to protect this data, prevent cybersecurity breaches, or avoid improper disclosure could lead to material adverse effects on our business, financial condition, and reputation.

Our platform may face several types of cyber threats, including phishing and Trojans targeting customers to obtain sensitive information, hacking attempts aimed at disrupting services and causing reputational damage, internal or external data theft, and advanced persistent threats where unauthorized individuals gain prolonged access to our network undetected. Such incidents could compromise sensitive data, including personal and financial information, exposing it to unauthorized persons.

Although we have systems and protocols to mitigate these risks, any successful breach of our security systems could lead to the theft of intellectual property, public exposure of confidential information, or disruption of services. This may result in legal actions, penalties, reputational damage, and loss of client trust, materially impacting our operations and financial stability.

To date, we have not experienced any significant disruptions or data breaches that have adversely affected our business or reputation. However, the inherent vulnerability of our systems to cyber threats and data breaches underscores the need for continuous improvement in our security measures and adherence to regulatory standards to protect the data we handle and maintain the trust of our stakeholders.

18. Our Independent Directors have not passed the online proficiency self-assessment test conducted by Indian Institute of Corporate Affairs to approve proficiency of a person to be appointed as an Independent Director of any company.

As per Section 150 of the Companies Act, 2013 read with Rule 6 of the Companies (Appointment and Qualifications of Directors) Rules, 2014, every individual who intends to get appointed as an independent director in a company shall before such appointment apply online to the Indian Institute of Corporate Affairs for inclusion of his/her name in the data bank maintained by mentioned institute. Further, every individual whose name is so included in the aforesaid data bank shall pass an online proficiency self-assessment test conducted by the Indian Institute of Corporate Affairs within a period of 2 years from the date of inclusion of his/her name in the data bank, failing which, his/her name shall stand removed from the databank of the Indian Institute of Corporate Affairs.

The Independent Directors of our company, details of whose appointments can be referred in the “Our Management” on page of 169 this Red Herring Prospectus, has been appointed duly as per the provisions of the Companies Act, 2013 and their name has been included in the aforesaid data bank but they have not yet passed the proficiency self-assessment test, and if they fail to pass the same within a period of 2 year from the date of inclusion of his name in the data bank their name will be removed from the databank of the Indian Institute of Corporate Affairs and they will be ineligible to continue to act as an Independent Directors of the Company.

19. The Objects of the Issue for which funds are being raised, are based on our management estimates and any bank or financial institution or any independent agency has not appraised the same. The deployment of funds in the project is entirely at our discretion, based on the parameters as mentioned in the chapter titles “Objects of the Issue”.

The fund requirement and deployment as mentioned in the section titled “Objects of the Issue” on page 93 of this Red Herring Prospectus are based on internal estimates of our management and have not been appraised by any bank, financial institution, or independent agency. These estimates are based on our current business plans, which may be subject to change due to various factors, including changes in market conditions, competitive pressures, or business exigencies.

We cannot assure that our current business plan will be implemented in its entirety, within the timelines contemplated, or at all. The actual costs and schedule of implementation may vary from the estimates provided due to factors beyond our control, including delays in obtaining approvals, unanticipated expenses, or changes in the scope of our operations. Any such variations may result in the deployment of Issue proceeds differing from the original estimates, which could adversely affect our business operations, financial condition, and results of operations.

20. Our historical performance is not indicative of our future growth or financial results and we may not be able to sustain our historical growth rates.

Our business has experienced significant growth in prior periods. On a standalone basis, our revenue from operations increased from ₹13,492.52 lakhs in FY 2023 to ₹18,949.75 lakhs in FY 2024 and ₹22,264.13 lakhs in FY 2025. This growth represents a Compound Annual Growth Rate (CAGR) of approximately 28.45% over the past three years. Sustaining this growth will require significant investments, including in assets, and will place pressure on our ability to effectively manage and control both historical and emerging risks. Expansion in the size of our business and the scope and complexity of our operations could strain our internal control framework and processes, potentially leading to delays, increased costs, and lower quality products and services. We may be unable to effectively manage this growth or achieve the desired profitability in the expected timeframe or at all.

As a retail loan aggregation platform in the loan industry, we operate amidst intense competition from both organized and unorganized players with a widespread presence across various regions in India. Competitors offer similar financial products, potentially gaining a competitive edge in areas such as interest rates, loan terms, customer service, operational efficiency, timely delivery, and reliability. Keeping pace with the ever-changing financial landscape and regulatory environment is crucial, and our ability to adapt will significantly impact our competitive standing.

21. Any non-compliance with mandatory anti-money laundering and know your customer policies could expose us to additional liability and harm our business and reputation.

Our subsidiary is subject to various anti-money laundering and know your customer laws and regulations, which mandate the verification of customer identities and monitoring of transactions to detect and prevent illicit activities. Any failure to comply with these requirements, whether due to operational lapses, human error, or inadequate implementation of policies and systems, could result in regulatory actions, penalties, or fines.

Non-compliance with AML and KYC obligations could also expose us to significant legal and reputational risks, including being implicated in money laundering or other financial crimes. Such incidents may adversely affect our ability to maintain banking relationships, attract investors, or secure necessary regulatory approvals, thereby harming our business operations and reputation.

We have implemented internal controls and processes to ensure compliance with AML and KYC regulations; however, there can be no assurance that these measures will be effective in all cases. Any lapses in compliance could result in additional liability and negatively impact our financial condition and operational stability.

Although, there have been no material events relating to this risk factor as of the date of this Red Herring Prospectus, there can be no assure that such events may not occur in the future.

22. Adverse publicity and third-party claims regarding our services could negatively impact us.

As a retail loan aggregation platform, maintaining our reputation is critical to our success. Any adverse publicity or third-party claims concerning our services could have a significant negative impact on our business operations and financial condition. Negative media coverage or public perception—whether accurate or not—can harm our brand image, diminish customer trust, and weaken our market position.

Allegations such as mis-selling of loan products, insufficient customer support, or unethical business practices could result in heightened regulatory scrutiny, legal proceedings, and financial penalties. Addressing and resolving such claims can also consume valuable time and resources, diverting focus from our core operations.

In a competitive market, sustaining a strong and positive reputation is essential for attracting and retaining both customers and lending partners. Adverse publicity or unresolved third-party claims could undermine our ability to grow, sustain operations, and achieve financial targets, ultimately affecting our long-term profitability and performance.

Although, there have been no material events relating to this risk factor as of the date of this Red Herring Prospectus, there can be no assure that such events may not occur in the future.

23. There are certain pending legal proceedings involving our Company. Any adverse outcome of such proceedings may affect our business, financial condition and reputation.

There are outstanding legal proceedings against our Company, which are pending at various levels of adjudication before various courts, tribunals and other authorities. The summary of outstanding matters set out below includes details of the above proceedings.

Particulars	Criminal Proceedings	Tax Proceedings	Statutory or regulatory proceedings	Disciplinary actions by SEBI or stock exchanges against our Promoters	Material civil litigations	Amount Involved (Rs. in Lakhs)
Company
By	Nil	3	Nil	Nil	Nil	27.98*
Against	Nil	3	Nil	Nil	Nil	27.98*

* The amount is inclusive on Rs. 2,61,262/- in penalties which has been contested by the Company vide Form APL-01 filed on 26/03/2024, 29/07/2024 and 25/11/2024.

For further details, refer to the chapter titled “Outstanding Litigations and Material Developments” on page 206 of this Red Herring Prospectus.

24. Non-availability of Audit Trail Feature in Accounting Software

Our Company has maintained its books of account using accounting software. However, for the financial year ended March 31, 2025, the software used did not have the capability to record an audit trail (edit log), as mandated under the proviso to Rule 3(1) of the Companies (Accounts) Rules, 2014, which became applicable from April 1, 2023. As a result, the statutory auditors were unable to comment on the generation, maintenance, and preservation of audit trails for the relevant period.

Any non-compliance with statutory requirements relating to the maintenance of books of account, including the recording of audit trails, may expose our Company to regulatory scrutiny or penal actions by regulatory authorities. Furthermore, the absence of an audit trail feature may hinder transparency and could raise concerns regarding the integrity and accuracy of our financial data. Such issues could adversely affect our reputation, financial condition, and the investor confidence in our Company.

25. The company's business is vulnerable to interest rate fluctuations driven by factors like RBI policies, inflation, and economic conditions, which may affect loan demand, increase financing costs, and impact overall financial stability.

Economic fluctuations, such as changes in interest rates or government policies, can impact the demand for loan Products. Adapting to such changes and implementing flexible strategies will be crucial in mitigating the risks associated with economic volatility. Our operations are vulnerable to fluctuations in interest rates. Interest rates are highly volatile and fluctuations thereof are dependent upon many factors, including the monetary policies of RBI, deregulation of the financial services sector in India, domestic and international economic and political conditions, inflation and other factors which are beyond our control. There can be no assurance that we will be able to completely manage our interest rate risk. If we are unable to mitigate the interest rate risk fully, it could have an adverse effect on our net interest margin, thereby affecting our business and financial condition.

26. Our growth will depend on our ability to build our brand and failure to do so will negatively impact our ability to effectively compete in this industry.

We believe that we need to continue to build our brand, which will be critical for achieving widespread recognition of our services. Promoting and positioning our brand will depend largely on the success of our marketing efforts and our ability to provide high quality services. The brand promotion activities that we may undertake may not yield increased revenues, and even if they do, any increased revenues may not offset the expenses we incur in building our brand. If we are unable to promote and maintain our brand, our business, financial condition and results of operations could be adversely affected.

27. Our Company has entered into certain related party transactions and may continue to do so in the future.

Our Company has entered into related party transactions with our Promoters, Directors, and Promoter Group during the last three financial years. While these transactions have been conducted on an arm's length basis in compliance with the Companies Act and other applicable rules and regulations, as supported by a certificate from our Statutory Auditors dated on October 13, 2025, there can be no assurance that they could not have been achieved on more favourable terms had such transactions not been entered into with related parties. Further, there can be no assurance that such transactions, individually or in the aggregate, will not have an adverse effect on our financial condition and results of operations. For more details, refer to the “Restated Financial Statements” on page 183 of this Red Herring Prospectus.

28. Our insurance coverage may not be adequate to protect us against all potential losses or to satisfy potential claims, which may have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations, financial condition, cash flows and future prospects.

While we maintain insurance coverage to mitigate certain risks, there is no assurance that our coverage will be sufficient to address all potential losses or claims, particularly in the event of significant or unforeseen circumstances. Insufficient coverage could expose us to substantial risks, resulting in adverse impacts on our business operations, financial performance, cash flows, and overall growth prospects.

As of July 31, 2025, our total insurance coverage amounts to Rs.379.71 lakhs, representing approximately 5.44% of our total assets and 135.45% of our total fixed assets. The details are summarized below:

Particulars	As of 31 July 2025
Total Insurance Coverage	379.71
Total Assets	7,611.73
Total Fixed Assets	280.33
Total insurance coverage as a percentage of total assets (%)	4.99%
Total insurance coverage as a percentage of total fixed assets (%)	135.45%

Although we take measures to regularly review and adjust our insurance policies to align with the nature of our business and operational risks, there remains a possibility that certain risks may not be covered, or that the coverage limits may not be adequate. In such scenarios, we may have to bear the financial consequences, which could strain our resources and adversely impact our financial condition and operations.

29. Our DRHP has previously been returned by the stock exchange, which may be perceived negatively and could impact investor confidence.

We had initially filed a Red Herring Prospectus (DRHP) with NSE. However, the exchange returned the DRHP with comments requiring certain clarifications and modifications. While we have since addressed the observations raised and are re-filing this DRHP after making necessary revisions, the earlier return of our DRHP may be perceived negatively by investors or market participants. There can be no assurance that the regulatory authorities will not raise additional queries or require further modifications. Any such delays or negative perception could adversely affect investor confidence, the timing of our listing, or the success of this Issue.

30. Our Company have unsecured loans, which are repayable on demand. Any demand from lenders for repayment of such unsecured loans may adversely affect our business operations and financial condition.

Our Company have availed unsecured loans from our Promoter, Promoter Group, and Directors that are repayable on demand and may be recalled by the relevant lender at any time. Any such unexpected demand or accelerated repayment may have a material adverse effect on the business, cash flows, and financial condition of our Company and its Subsidiary.

For further information on Financial Indebtedness of the company, please refer to the chapter titled "Financial Indebtedness", beginning on page 190 of this Red Herring Prospectus.

Although, there have been no material events relating to this risk factor as of the date of this Red Herring Prospectus, there can be no assure that such events may not occur in the future.

31. We may not be successful in implementing our business strategies.

The success of our business depends substantially on our ability to implement our business strategies effectively or at all. Even though we have successfully executed our business strategies in the past, there is no guarantee that we can implement the same on time and within the estimated budget going forward, or that we will be able to meet the expectations of our targeted customers. Changes in regulations applicable to us may also make it difficult to implement our business strategies. Failure to implement our business strategies would have a material adverse effect on our business and results of operations.

32. We operate in dynamic and competitive online fintech industry, which makes it difficult to predict our future prospects.

We operate in India's dynamic and competitive fintech industry. These industries are relatively new, and business models continue to evolve. The regulatory framework governing the loan, Insurance and credit industry are also developing and may change drastically in the near future. As our business develops and in response to competition, we will continue to provide data insights to our lending partners including Banks and NBFCs to assist them to innovate and design better customized products for Consumers as well as to improve their existing products and continue to improve our service offerings or adjust and optimize our business model from time to time. Additionally, our Insurer and Lending Partners may impose more stringent credit management or risk control policies and/or systems to maintain the quality of new products and solutions they offer on our platforms or as a response to general economic conditions, which may negatively affect the growth of our business. Any significant change to our business model may not achieve expected results and may have a material and adverse impact on our financial condition and results of operations. It is therefore difficult to effectively assess our future prospects. The risks and challenges we encounter or may encounter in this emerging, dynamic and competitive market may have an impact on our business and prospects. These risks and challenges include our ability to, among other things:

- develop and maintain relationships with our existing Insurer and Lending Partners and attract new Insurer and Lending Partners;
- navigate and comply with an evolving regulatory environment;
- share our data insights with Insurer and Lending Partners to assist them in developing and launching diversified and distinguishable products;
- grow our Consumer base, market share and enhance our Consumer engagement in a cost-efficient manner;
- effectively implement business development and growth strategies to further increase revenues;
- enhance our credit management and risk control capabilities;
- maintain a secure and scalable technology infrastructure;
- maintain our technology and data focused corporate culture and continue to attract, retain and motivate talented employees;
- generate reasonable returns from our strategic investments or realise synergies by investing in or acquiring potential strategic targets; and
- defend ourselves against litigation, claims concerning intellectual property, privacy or other aspects of our business.

The industries in which we operate are highly competitive, and continuously develop new innovative segments which may not develop as expected. If we fail to educate business partners and Consumers about the value of our services, if the market for our

Insurer and Lending Partners' products and solutions does not develop as we expect, if we fail to address the needs of our target market, or face other unexpected risks and challenges, our business and results of operations will be adversely affected.

33. The market capitalization to revenue, market capitalisation to tangible assets, and enterprise value ("EV") to EBITDA, based on the Issue Price of our Company, may not be indicative of the market price of our Company on listing or thereafter.

The market capitalization to revenue, market capitalization to tangible assets, and enterprise value (EV) to EBITDA ratios based on the Issue Price of our Company may not accurately reflect the market price of our equity shares upon listing or at any time thereafter. These valuation metrics are influenced by various factors, including prevailing market conditions, investor sentiment, and company-specific developments, which may not be directly related to our operational performance or financial results.

The Issue Price has been determined based on multiple qualitative and quantitative factors, including comparisons with peer companies, industry outlook, and feedback from investors during the book-building process. However, there is no assurance that these metrics will remain consistent post-listing, as they may fluctuate due to external factors such as broader market volatility, economic conditions, or changes in industry dynamics.

Any significant deviation of the market price of our equity shares from these valuation metrics may adversely affect investor confidence and could lead to volatility in the trading price of our equity shares, thereby impacting the market perception of our Company.

34. We require certain approvals or licenses in the ordinary course of business and the failure to renew, obtain or retain them in a timely manner, or at all, may adversely affect our operations.

We require certain statutory and regulatory permits, licenses and approvals to operate our business. Though we believe that we have obtained those permits and licenses which are adequate to run our business, we cannot assure that there is no other statutory/regulatory requirement which we are required to comply with. Further, some of these approvals are granted for fixed periods of time and need renewal from time to time. We are required to renew such permits, licenses and approvals. There can be no assurance that the relevant authorities will issue any of such permits or approvals in time or at all. Failure by us to renew, maintain or obtain the required permits or approvals in time may result in the interruption of our operations and may have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

If there is any failure by us to comply with the applicable regulations or if the regulations governing our business are amended, we may incur increased costs, be subject to penalties, have our approvals and permits revoked or suffer a disruption in our operations, any of which could adversely affect our business. Our Company is in the process of making application for change in name in all the permits, licenses and approvals, which are under Company's former name. For further details, please see "Government and Other Statutory Approvals" on page 212 of the Red Herring Prospectus. If we are unable to obtain the requisite licenses in a timely manner or at all, our business operations and results may be affected. There can be no assurance that the relevant authorities will issue these approvals or licenses in a timely manner, or at all.

35. We may be exposed to the risk of delays or non-payment by our clients and other counterparties, which may also affect our cash flows and business.

We may be exposed to counterparty credit risk during the normal course of our business relationship with customers or other partners, who may delay or fail to make payments or meet contractual obligations. The financial status of our business partners, and other partners may be affected by their business, which may be affected by a number of factors, including general economic conditions. We cannot assure you of the continued viability of our partners or that we will accurately assess their reliability. We also cannot guarantee that we will be able to collect all or part of past due payments. Any serious nonpayment or non-performance by our customers, business partners, suppliers or other partners can affect the financial condition, results of operations and cash flows.

Although, there have been no material events relating to this risk factor as of the date of this Red Herring Prospectus, there can be no assure that such events may not occur in the future.

36. Stringent and changing laws and regulations relating to privacy and data protection could result in claims, harm our results of operations, financial condition, and prospects, or otherwise harm our business.

We are subject to a variety of laws, rules, directives, and regulations, as well as contractual obligations, relating to the processing of personal information, including personally identifiable information. The regulatory framework for privacy and data protection worldwide is rapidly evolving and, as a result, implementation standards and enforcement practices are likely to continue to evolve for the foreseeable future. Legislators and regulators are increasingly adopting or revising privacy and data protection laws, rules, directives, and regulations that could have a significant impact on our current and planned privacy and data protection-related practices; our processing of personal information; our current or planned business activities. Compliance with current or future privacy and data protection laws affecting personal information to which we are subject could result in higher compliance and technology costs and could restrict our ability to provide certain products and services (such as products or services that involve us sharing personal information with third parties or storing personal information), which could materially and adversely affect our financial position and could reduce income from certain business initiatives. Our failure, or the failure of any third party with whom we conduct business, to comply with privacy and data protection laws could result in potentially significant regulatory investigations and government actions, litigations, fines, or sanctions and consequently damage to our reputation, which could have a material adverse effect on our business. Complying with privacy and data protection laws and regulations may cause us to incur substantial operational costs or require us to change our privacy and security practices.

37. Our Promoters and certain of our Directors hold Equity Shares in our Company and are therefore interested in our performance in addition to their remuneration and reimbursement of expenses.

Our Promoters and certain of our Directors hold Equity Shares in our Company and are therefore interested in our performance in addition to their remuneration and reimbursement of expenses. Certain of our Directors, including our Promoters, are interested in our Company, in addition to regular remuneration or benefits and reimbursement of expenses, to the extent of their shareholding in our Company. We cannot assure you that our Promoters will exercise their rights as shareholders to the benefit and best interest of our Company. Our Promoters may take actions with respect to our business that could conflict with the best interests of our Company or that of minority shareholders. For details on the interest of our Promoters and Directors in our Company, other than reimbursement of expenses incurred or normal remuneration or benefits, see the sections titled “Related Party Transactions” on page 188 of this Red Herring Prospectus.

38. Our directors do not have experience of a listed company and in the absence of such experience, it could adversely affect our corporate governance and business operations of our Company.

In the realm of corporate governance and leadership, the experience of directors plays a crucial role in steering the course of a company. It is often perceived that directors with prior experience in listed companies bring invaluable insights, knowledge, and strategic acumen to the boardroom. Furthermore, the absence of listed company experience among directors may limit their ability to effectively oversee risk management frameworks and succession planning strategies. These oversight responsibilities are critical in mitigating operational risks, ensuring organizational resilience, and safeguarding against potential conflicts of interest or ethical lapses. Although our company's board of directors is pivotal in shaping its strategic direction, ensuring regulatory compliance, and safeguarding stakeholder interests.

Further, our directors lack of direct experience in a listed environment may inadvertently expose the company to the risk of corporate governance and affect the business operation of our Company. For Further details, please refer to chapter titled “Our Management” beginning on Page 169 of this Red Herring Prospectus.

39. Our operations could be adversely affected by disputes with employees.

As of the date of this Red Herring Prospectus, the Company employed a workforce of 276 full-time employees excluding directors and KMP. While we believe we maintain good relationships with employees, there can be no assurance that the Company will not experience future disruptions to its operations due to disputes or other problems with its workforce or contract labour employed by independent contractors.

Although, there have been no material events relating to this risk factor as of the date of this Red Herring Prospectus, there can be no assure that such events may not occur in the future.

40. We could be harmed by employee misconduct or errors that are difficult to detect and any such incidence could adversely affect our financial condition, results of operations and reputation.

Employee misconduct or errors could expose us to business risks or losses, including regulatory sanctions and serious harm to our reputation. There can be no assurance that we will be able to detect or deter such misconduct. Moreover, the precautions we take to prevent and detect such activity may not be effective in all cases. Our employees may also commit errors that could subject us to claims and proceedings for alleged negligence, as well as regulatory actions on account of which our business, financial condition, results of operations and goodwill could be adversely affected.

Although, there have been no material events relating to this risk factor as of the date of this Red Herring Prospectus, there can be no assure that such events may not occur in the future.

41. The Objects of the Issue for which funds are being raised, are based on our management estimates and have not been appraised by any bank or financial institution or any independent agency.

The deployment of funds will be entirely at our discretion, based on the parameters as mentioned in the chapter titled “Objects of the Issue”. The fund requirement and deployment, as mentioned in the “Objects of the Issue” on page 90 of this Red Herring Prospectus is based on the estimates of our management and has not been appraised by any bank or financial institution or any other independent agency. These funds requirement are based on our current business plan. We cannot assure that the current business plan will be implemented in its entirety or at all. In view of the dynamic nature of our business, we may have to revise our business plan from time to time and consequently these fund requirements. The deployment of the funds as stated under chapter “Objects of the Issue” is at the discretion of our Board of Directors and is not subject to monitoring by any external independent agency.

42. The high level of competition in urban markets may limit customer acquisition, strain profitability, and hinder revenue growth, impacting our ability to maintain consistent financial performance.

Market saturation, particularly in urban and metro regions, is a growing concern due to the increasing number of competitors, including established players, fintech startups, and traditional banks. These regions already have a dense customer base targeted by multiple financial service providers, making it increasingly difficult to stand out. This saturation can limit the company's ability to acquire new customers effectively, especially in segments where competition is the fiercest.

The intense competition in saturated markets often forces companies to adopt aggressive pricing strategies, such as offering lower interest rates or higher agent commissions. While these measures may attract customers, they can significantly erode profit margins. Furthermore, the limited pool of prospective customers means that revenue growth in these markets may stagnate, posing challenges to maintaining consistent financial performance.

Customer retention also becomes more challenging in saturated markets. With numerous alternatives available, customers can easily switch to competitors offering marginally better terms, newer products, or a superior user experience. This increased churn rate not only affects immediate revenue but also reduces the lifetime value of customers, undermining long-term growth potential.

To mitigate the impact of market saturation, the company could focus on geographic diversification by targeting less penetrated Tier 2 and Tier 3 cities, where competition is lower, and digital adoption is on the rise. Additionally, introducing innovative or niche financial products tailored to specific customer needs can help attract underserved segments and reduce reliance on saturated markets. By leveraging data analytics and personalized marketing strategies, the company can enhance customer engagement and strengthen retention efforts even in competitive environments.

43. The integration of offline and online channels introduces significant challenges in coordination, resource allocation, and process efficiency, which may disrupt operations and affect service quality.

Managing a hybrid business model that integrates both offline and online channels introduces significant operational complexity. The offline channel relies heavily on an extensive agent network, which requires continuous training, monitoring, and incentivization to ensure performance and compliance. The digital channel, on the other hand, demands constant technological updates, robust cybersecurity measures, and seamless integration with third-party systems to maintain a competitive edge. Balancing the two models requires substantial coordination, resources, and strategic oversight.

The need for synchronization between the offline and online channels can lead to inefficiencies. For example, discrepancies in customer data or delays in processing applications due to coordination gaps can negatively impact the customer experience. Additionally, managing such a diverse operational setup increases the likelihood of errors, miscommunication, and logistical challenges, all of which can undermine the company's efficiency and profitability.

As the company scales, these complexities are likely to grow, further straining its operational infrastructure. Expanding into new markets or introducing new products will add additional layers of complexity, including regulatory compliance, local market adaptation, and resource allocation. These challenges can also lead to higher operational costs and slower response times, which might erode the company's competitive advantage.

To address operational complexity, the company can invest in advanced technologies that enable better integration and automation of processes across channels. Standardizing procedures, streamlining workflows, and enhancing data management systems can improve efficiency and reduce errors. Additionally, regular training programs for agents and staff can ensure alignment with the company's goals, minimize communication gaps, and maintain high service quality as the business grows.

Although, there have been no material events relating to this risk factor as of the date of this Red Herring Prospectus, there can be no assure that such events may not occur in the future.

44. Intense competition and the company's reliance on commissions for revenue create significant margin pressures, challenging profitability and business sustainability.

Margin pressures are a key risk, primarily due to the highly competitive landscape in the digital lending market and the company's commission-based revenue model. The increasing number of competitors—ranging from large banks to nimble fintech startups—puts pressure on the company to either lower its commission rates to attract customers or offer more lucrative incentives to its agents. While these strategies can enhance customer acquisition, they simultaneously reduce profit margins, potentially undermining the sustainability of the business.

Moreover, the high cost of maintaining an extensive agent network and investing in technological upgrades, such as digital platforms and cybersecurity, adds further strain on the company's operational margins. As competition intensifies, the company may be forced to sacrifice profitability in favor of growth, particularly in a bid to retain market share in saturated segments.

The company also faces pressure from lenders, as commission rates are often negotiated based on the volume of loans disbursed, and lenders may increasingly demand better terms or lower commissions in exchange for higher business volumes. This further limit profitability, especially in cases where the company is required to maintain high customer acquisition rates to meet its financial targets.

To counter margin pressures, the company could explore ways to streamline operations, automate processes, and leverage economies of scale to reduce costs. Diversifying revenue streams, such as introducing additional value-added services or expanding into new financial product categories, could also help bolster margins. Additionally, focusing on customer retention and maximizing lifetime value could improve profitability without relying solely on new customer acquisition.

45. If we are unable to recruit, train and retain qualified personnel, our business may be materially and adversely affected.

We believe our future success depends on our continued ability to attract, develop, motivate and retain qualified and skilled employees. Competition for personnel with expertise in insurance, sales and marketing and information technology is extremely intense in India. In particular, we have seen that junior members in our operations team are generally younger and are more likely to leave and pursue other paths. We may not be able to hire and retain these personnel at compensation levels consistent with our existing compensation and salary structure. Some of the companies with which we compete for experienced employees have greater resources than we have and may be able to offer more attractive terms of employment. In addition, we invest significant time and resources in training our employees, which increases their value to competitors who may seek to recruit them. If we fail to retain our employees, we could incur significant expenses in hiring and training new employees, and our ability to serve Consumers and Insurer Partners could diminish, resulting in a material adverse effect to our business.

46. We are highly dependent on our Promoters and our management team, senior management personnel and key managerial personnel and the loss of any key team member may adversely affect our business performance.

Our Promoters, management team, senior management personnel and key managerial personnel have been instrumental in the growth and development of our Company. We benefit from our Promoters, and any decline in our relationship with him could have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations, financial condition, cash flows and future prospects.

Further, our businesses are dependent upon an experienced senior management team and we believe that the experience and skill of our management team and our investors allows us to possess a significant advantage over our global competitors. If one or more members of our management team, senior management personnel and key managerial personnel were unable or unwilling to continue in their present positions, such persons would be difficult to replace and our business, results of operations, financial condition, cash flows and future prospects could be adversely affected.

To maintain and grow our business, we will need to identify, hire, develop, motivate, and retain highly skilled employees. Identifying, recruiting, training, integrating, and retaining qualified individuals requires significant time, expense, and attention. We may need to invest significant amounts of cash to attract and retain new employees and expend significant time and resources to identify, recruit, train, and integrate such employees, and we may never realize returns on these investments. If we are not able to retain and motivate our current personnel or effectively manage our hiring needs or successfully integrate and retain new hires, our efficiency, ability to achieve our strategic objectives, meet forecasts, and employee morale, productivity, and engagement could suffer, which could adversely affect our business, financial condition, cash flows and results of operations.

Any loss of members of our management team or key managerial personnel or senior management could significantly delay or prevent the achievement of our business objectives, affect our succession planning and could harm our business and customer relationships.

47. If we are unable to obtain, protect or use our intellectual property rights, our business may be adversely affected.

We rely on our intellectual property for the success of our business which includes one domain name and our trademark. Our domain name may expire, and we cannot assure you that we will be able to renew it after expiry. While we intend to defend against any threats to our intellectual property, we cannot assure you that our intellectual property rights can be adequately protected in a timely manner. We rely on protections available under Indian law, which may not be adequate to prevent unauthorized use of our intellectual property by third parties. Furthermore, the application of laws governing intellectual property rights in India is uncertain and evolving and could expose us to substantial risks and costs. Notwithstanding the precautions we take to protect our intellectual property rights, it is possible that third parties may copy or otherwise infringe on our rights, which may have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations, financial conditions, cash flows and future prospects.

Further, while we take care to ensure that we comply with the intellectual property rights of others, we cannot determine with certainty whether we are infringing any existing third-party intellectual property rights which may force us to alter our offerings. If such claims are raised against us in the future, they could result in costly litigation, divert management's attention and resources, subject us to significant liabilities and require us to enter into potentially expensive royalty or licensing agreements or to cease use of certain of our brands, can result in significant damages being awarded and injunctions that could prevent us from offering our products. In addition, there is no assurance that steps taken by us to protect our intellectual property rights will be adequate to stop infringement by others, including imitation and misappropriation of our brand. Any of the foregoing could have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations, financial conditions, cash flow and future prospects.

Although, there have been no material events relating to this risk factor as of the date of this Red Herring Prospectus, there can be no assure that such events may not occur in the future.

48. We may require additional financing in the form of debt or equity to meet our business requirements.

In order to meet our business requirements (including undertaking growth), we may require loans from banks and financial institutions or the sale or issue of equity or debt securities in private or public offerings. In the event that we incur debt in the future, our interest payment obligations will increase, and we may be subject to additional conditions from lenders, who could place restrictions on how we operate our business and result in reduced cash flows. If we decide to issue equity, the ownership interest of our existing shareholders will be diluted. We cannot provide any assurance that we will be able to raise adequate financing on acceptable terms, in a timely manner or at all. Our failure to obtain sufficient financing could result in a lack of cash flow to meet our operating requirements and, therefore, have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations, cash flow and financial condition.

49. The average cost of acquisition of Equity Shares by our Promoters could be lower than the issue price.

Our Promoters' average cost of acquisition of Equity Shares in our Company may be lower than the Issue Price of the shares proposed to be issued through this Red Herring Prospectus. For further details regarding average cost of acquisition of Equity Shares by our Promoters in our Company, please refer to "Summary of the Issue Document" on page 17 of this Red Herring Prospectus.

50. Our ability to pay dividends in the future will depend upon our future earnings, financial condition, cash flow, working capital requirements, capital expenditure and restrictive covenants in our financing arrangements.

We may retain all our future earnings, if any, for use in the operations and expansion of our business. As a result, we may not declare dividends in the foreseeable future. Any future determination as to the declaration and payment of dividends will be at the discretion of our Board of Directors and will depend on factors that our Board of Directors deem relevant, including among others, our results of operations financial condition, cash requirements, business prospects and any other financing arrangements.

Additionally, we may not be permitted to declare any dividends under the loan financing arrangement that our Company may enter into future, if there is a default under such loan agreements or unless our Company has paid all the dues to the lender up to the date on which the dividend is declared or paid or has made satisfactory provisions thereof.

Accordingly, realization of a gain on shareholder's investments may largely depend upon the appreciation of the price of our Equity Shares. There can be no assurance that our Equity Shares will appreciate in value. For details regarding our dividend policy, please see "Dividend Policy" on page 187 of this Red Herring Prospectus.

51. Our future funds requirements, in the form of fresh issue of capital or securities and/or loans taken by us, may be prejudicial to the interest of the shareholders depending upon the terms on which they are eventually raised.

We may require additional capital from time to time depending on our business needs. Any fresh issue of shares or convertible securities would dilute the shareholding of the existing shareholders, and such issuance may be done on terms and conditions, which may not be favourable to the then existing shareholders. If such funds are raised in the form of loans or debt, then it may substantially increase our interest burden and decrease our cash flow, thus prejudicially affecting our profitability and ability to pay dividends to our shareholders.

52. Delays in raising funds from the IPO could adversely impact the implementation schedule.

The proposed use of issue proceeds, as detailed in the section titled “Objects of the Issue” is to be partially and/or wholly funded from the proceeds of this IPO. We have not identified any alternate source of funding and hence any failure or delay on our part to mobilize the required resources or any shortfall in the Issue proceeds may delay the implementation schedule. We, therefore, cannot assure that we would be able to execute the expansion process within the given time frame, or within the costs as originally estimated by us. Any time overrun or cost overrun may adversely affect our growth plans and profitability.

53. The requirements of being a public listed company may strain our resources and impose additional requirements.

With the increased scrutiny of the affairs of a public listed company by shareholders, regulators and the public at large, we will incur significant legal, accounting, corporate governance and other expenses that we were not required to incur in the past. We will also be subject to the provisions of the listing agreements signed with the Stock Exchange. In order to meet our financial control and disclosure obligations, significant resources and management supervision will be required. As a result, management’s attention may be diverted from other business concerns, which could have an adverse effect on our business and operations. There can be no assurance that we will be able to satisfy our reporting obligations. In addition, we will need to increase the strength of our management team and hire additional legal and accounting staff with appropriate public company experience and accounting knowledge and we cannot assure that we will be able to do so in a timely manner. Failure of our Company to meet the listing requirements of stock exchange, if any, could lead to imposition of penalties, including suspension of trading in shares of the Company.

54. Interest rate fluctuations may adversely affect the Company's business.

The Company has entered into certain borrowing arrangements to finance its capital requirements in the ordinary course of business in connection with potential acquisitions or for general working capital purposes. In the event interest rates increase, the Company's costs of borrowing will increase, and its profitability and results of operations may be adversely affected.

55. Industry information included in this Red Herring Prospectus has been derived from industry reports from various websites. Reliance on the forecasts of the reports could be incorrect and would significantly impact our operations.

We have relied on the reports of certain independent third parties for purposes of inclusion of such information in this Red Herring Prospectus. These reports are subject to various limitations and based upon certain assumptions that are subjective in nature. We have not independently verified data from such industry reports and other sources. Although we believe that the data may be considered to be reliable, their accuracy, completeness and underlying assumptions are not guaranteed, and their dependability cannot be assured. While we have taken reasonable care in the reproduction of the information, the information has not been prepared or independently verified by us or any of our respective affiliates or advisors and, therefore, we make no representation or warranty, express or implied, as to the accuracy or completeness of such facts and statistics.

Due to possibly flawed or ineffective collection methods or discrepancies between published information and market practice and other problems, the statistics herein may be inaccurate or may not be comparable to statistics produced for other economies and should not be unduly relied upon. Further, there is no assurance that they are stated or compiled on the same basis or with the same degree of accuracy as may be the case elsewhere. Statements from third parties that involve estimates are subject to change, and actual amounts may differ materially from those included in this Red Herring Prospectus.

56. You may be subject to Indian taxes arising out of capital gains on sale of Equity Shares.

Under current Indian tax laws and regulations, capital gains arising from the sale of Equity Shares in an Indian Company are generally taxable in India. Any gain realized on the sale of listed Equity Shares on a stock exchange held for more than 12 months shall be subject to capital gains tax in India at 10% of such capital gain exceeding Rs. 1 lakh if Securities Transaction Tax (STT) has been paid on both acquisition and transfer of such shares. STT will be levied on and collected by a domestic stock exchange on which the Equity Shares are sold. Any gain realised on the sale of Equity Shares held for more than 12 months to an Indian resident, which are sold other than on a recognized stock exchange and on which no STT has been paid, will be subject to long term capital gains tax in India. However, any gain realized on the sale of listed Equity Shares held for a period of 12 months or less will be subject to short term capital gains tax in India. Further, any gain realised on the sale of listed equity shares held for a period of 12 months or less which are sold other than on a recognised stock exchange and on which no STT has been paid, will be subject to short term capital gains tax at a relatively higher rate as compared to the transaction where STT has been paid in India. For more details, please refer to the section entitled “Statement of Tax Benefit.”

ISSUE RELATED RISK FACTORS

57. We cannot assure you that our equity shares will be listed on the NSE EMERGE in a timely manner or at all, which may restrict your ability to dispose of the equity shares.

Though we shall make best of our efforts to comply with all applicable regulatory, financial and operational requirements for getting the equity shares proposed to be offered through this Red Herring Prospectus listed on NSE EMERGE platform in a time bound manner, yet on account of any change in applicable laws, economic conditions and/or any other reason/s beyond our control, the said shares may not get listed on the EMERGE Platform of National Stock Exchange of India Limited in a timely manner or at all, which may restrict your ability to dispose of the equity shares. However, even in such circumstances, the Company shall stay fully committed to pay such interest and/or refund the full application amount, as may be required in accordance with the applicable regulatory directives.

58. Sale of Equity Shares by our Promoters or other significant shareholder(s) may adversely affect the trading price of the Equity Shares.

Any instance of disinvestments of equity shares by our Promoters or by other significant shareholder(s) may significantly affect the trading price of our Equity Shares. Further, our market price may also be adversely affected even if there is a perception or belief that such sales of Equity Shares might occur.

59. After this Issue, the price of the Equity Shares may be highly volatile, or an active trading market for the Equity Shares may not develop.

After listing permission and trading permission of equity shares have been granted, the price of the shares shall be driven by free market forces. The market price of a company's share is determined by the forces of supply and demand in the stock market. These forces are influenced by a variety of factors, including the company's financial performance, industry trends, economic conditions, and investor sentiment. When a company issues equity shares, it sets an issue price based on various factors such as the company's valuation, the prevailing market conditions, and the demand for its shares. However, the issue price is not necessarily indicative of the market price of the shares after the issue. Once the shares are listed on the stock exchange, their price is determined by the forces of supply and demand in the market. If there is strong demand for the shares, the price may rise above the issue price, and if there is weak demand, the price may fall below the issue price. Therefore, while the issue price of equity shares provides a starting point for the company's valuation, it is not necessarily a reliable indicator of the market price of the shares after the issue. Investors should carefully evaluate all relevant factors and information before making investment decisions in the stock market.

60. There are restrictions on daily movements in the price of the Equity Shares, which may adversely affect a shareholder's ability to sell, or the price at which it can sell, Equity Shares at a particular point in time.

Following the Issue, we will be subject to a daily "circuit breaker" imposed by the Stock Exchange, which does not allow transactions beyond specified increases or decreases in the price of the Equity Shares. This circuit breaker operates independently of the index-based, market-wide circuit breakers generally imposed by SEBI on Indian stock exchanges. The percentage limit on our circuit breakers will be set by the stock exchange based on the historical volatility in the price and trading volume of the Equity Shares. This circuit breaker will limit the upward and downward movements in the price of the Equity Shares. As a result of this circuit breaker, no assurance can be given regarding your ability to sell your Equity Shares or the price at which you may be able to sell your Equity Shares at any particular time.

61. The Issue price of our Equity Shares may not be indicative of the market price of our Equity Shares after the Issue and the market price of our Equity Shares may decline below the issue price and you may not be able to sell your Equity Shares at or above the Issue Price.

The Issue Price of our Equity Shares has been determined by Book Built method. This price is being based on numerous factors (For further information, please see the section "Basis for Issue Price" of this Red Herring Prospectus) and may not be indicative of the market price of our Equity Shares after the Issue. The market price of our Equity Shares could be subject to significant fluctuations after the Issue, and may decline below the Issue Price. We cannot assure you that you will be able to sell your Equity Shares at or above the Issue Price. Among the factors that could affect our share price include without limitation. The following:

- Half yearly variations in the rate of growth of our financial indicators, such as earnings per share, net income and revenues;
- Changes in revenue or earnings estimates or publication of research reports by analysts;
- Speculation in the press or investment community;
- General market conditions; and
- Domestic and international economic, legal and regulatory factors unrelated to our performance.

62. Holders of Equity Shares may be restricted in their ability to exercise pre-emptive rights under Indian law and thereby may suffer future dilution of their ownership position.

Under the Companies Act, a company constituted through share capital and incorporated in India must offer its holders of equity shares pre-emptive rights to subscribe and pay for a proportionate number of equity shares to maintain their existing ownership percentages before the issuance of any new equity shares, unless the pre-emptive rights have been waived by adoption of a special resolution. However, if the laws of the jurisdiction in which the investors are located do not permit them to exercise their preemptive rights without our filing an offering document or registration statement with the applicable authority in such jurisdiction, the investors will be unable to exercise their pre-emptive rights unless we make such a filing. If we elect not to file a registration statement, the new securities may be issued to a custodian, who may sell the securities for the investor's benefit. The value the custodian receives on the sale of such securities and the related transaction costs cannot be predicted. In addition, to the extent that the investors are unable to exercise pre-emption rights granted in respect of the Equity Shares held by them, their proportional interest in us would be reduced.

EXTERNAL RISK FACTORS

63. If there is any change in laws or regulations, or their interpretation, such changes may significantly affect our financial statements or affect our conduct of operation.

Any change in Indian tax laws could have an effect on our operations. For instance, the Taxation Laws (Amendment) Act, 2019, prescribes certain changes to the income tax rate applicable to companies in India. According to this Act, companies can henceforth voluntarily opt in favor of a concessional tax regime (subject to no other special benefits/exemptions being claimed), which would ultimately reduce the tax rate (on gross basis) for Indian companies. Any such future amendments may affect our ability to claim exemptions that we have historically benefited from, and such exemptions may no longer be available to us. Any adverse order passed by the appellate authorities/ tribunals/ courts would have an effect on our profitability.

The Finance Act, 2020 ("Finance Act"), has, amongst other things, provided a number of amendments to the direct and indirect tax regime, including, without limitation, a simplified alternate direct tax regime. For instance, dividend distribution tax ("DDT") will not be payable in respect of dividends declared, distributed or paid by a domestic company after March 31, 2020, and accordingly, such dividends would not be exempt in the hands of the shareholders, both resident as well as non-resident and are likely be subject to tax deduction at source.

Further, the Government of India has introduced the Finance Bill, 2023, in the Union Budget for Fiscal 2024. The Finance Bill, 2023 proposes various amendments to taxation laws in India. As such, there is no certainty on the impact that the Finance Bill, 2023 may have on our business and operations or on the industry in which we operate. In addition, unfavorable changes in or interpretations of existing, or the promulgation of new laws, rules and regulations including foreign investment laws governing our business, operations and group structure could result in us being deemed to be in contravention of such laws or may require us to apply for additional approvals. We may incur increased costs relating to compliance with such new requirements, which may also require management time and other resources, and any failure to comply may adversely affect our business, results of operations and prospects. Uncertainty in the applicability, interpretation or implementation of any amendment to, or change in, governing law, regulation or policy, including by reason of an absence, or a limited body, of administrative or judicial precedent may be time consuming as well as costly for us to resolve and may affect the viability of our current business or restrict our ability to grow our business in the future.

64. If we fail to maintain an effective system of internal controls, we may not be able to successfully manage, or accurately report, our financial risks.

Our management is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal financial controls based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by it while taking into account the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India. These responsibilities include the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls to ensure the orderly and efficient conduct of our business, including adherence to our policies, the safeguarding of our assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Companies Act, 2013. Effective internal controls are necessary for us to prepare reliable financial reports and effectively avoid fraud. Moreover, any internal controls that we may implement, or our level of compliance with such controls, may deteriorate over time, due to evolving business conditions. While we have taken measures to strengthen our internal control system and have conducted audits to review gaps and process weaknesses and implemented the suggested measures, there can be no assurance that deficiencies in our internal controls will not arise in the future, or that we will be able to implement, and continue to maintain, adequate measures to rectify or mitigate any such deficiencies in our internal controls. Any inability on our part to adequately detect, rectify or mitigate any such deficiencies in our internal controls may adversely impact our ability to accurately report, or successfully manage, our financial risks, and to avoid fraud.

65. Changes in government regulations or their implementation could disrupt our operations and adversely affect our business and results of operations.

Our business and industry is regulated by different laws, rules and regulations framed by the Central and State Government. These regulations can be amended/ changed on a short notice at the discretion of the Government. If we fail to comply with all applicable regulations or if the regulations governing our business or their implementation change adversely, we may incur increased costs or be subject to penalties, which could disrupt our operations and adversely affect our business and results of operations.

66. Any adverse change or downgrade in the Sovereign Ratings of India may adversely affect our business, results of operations and cash flows.

Any adverse revisions to India's credit ratings international debt by international rating freight brokers may adversely affect our ability to raise additional overseas financing and the interest rates and other commercial terms at which such additional financing is available. This could have an adverse effect on our ability to fund our growth on favourable terms or at all, and consequently adversely affect our business and financial performance and the price of our Equity Shares.

67. Political instability or a change in economic liberalization and deregulation policies could seriously harm business and economic conditions in India generally and our business in particular.

The Government of India has traditionally exercised and continues to exercise influence over many aspects of the economy. Our business and the market price and liquidity of our Equity Shares may be affected by interest rates, changes in Government policy, taxation, social and civil unrest and other political, economic or other developments in or affecting India. The rate of economic liberalization could change, and specific laws and policies affecting the information technology sector, foreign investment and other matters affecting investment in our securities could change as well. Any significant change in such liberalization and deregulation policies could adversely affect business and economic conditions in India, generally, and our business, prospects, financial condition and results of operations, in particular.

68. Global economic, political and social conditions may harm our ability to do business, increase our costs and negatively affect our stock price.

Global economic and political factors that are beyond our control, influence forecasts and directly affect performance. These factors include interest rates, rates of economic growth, fiscal and monetary policies of governments, inflation, deflation, foreign exchange fluctuations, consumer credit availability, fluctuations in commodities markets, consumer debt levels, unemployment trends and other matters that influence consumer confidence, spending and tourism. Increasing volatility in financial markets may cause these factors to change with a greater degree of frequency and magnitude, which may negatively affect our stock prices.

69. Natural calamities like epidemics, pandemic, or fire, war, terrorist attacks, civil riots or other events could materially and adversely affect our business.

Natural disasters (earthquakes, floods, etc.), epidemics, pandemics, war, terrorist attacks and other events, which are beyond our control, may lead to economic instability, which may in turn materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations. Our operations could also be adversely affected by fires, natural disasters and/or severe weather, which can result in damage to our property. We cannot assure you that there will not be any such accidents in the future thereby causing an adverse effect. We cannot assure you that there will not be any such accidents in the future thereby causing an adverse effect on our business and operations. Any terrorist attacks or civil unrest as well as other adverse social, economic and political events in India could have a negative effect on us. Such incidents could also create a greater perception that investment in Indian companies involves a higher degree of risk and could have an adverse effect on our business and the price of the Equity Shares.

70. The Indian tax regime is currently undergoing substantial changes which could adversely affect our business.

The goods and service tax ("GST") that has been implemented with effect from July 1, 2017 combines taxes and levies by the GoI and state governments into a unified rate structure, and replaces indirect taxes on goods and services such as central excise duty, service tax, customs duty, central sales tax, state VAT, cess and surcharge and excise that were being collected by the GoI and state governments. As regards the General Anti-Avoidance Rules ("GAAR"), the general anti avoidance rules ("GAAR") provisions have been made effective from assessment year 2018-19 onwards, i.e.; financial Year 2017-18. The GAAR provisions intend to declare an arrangement as an "impermissible avoidance arrangement", if the main purpose or one of the main purposes of such arrangement is to obtain a tax benefit, and satisfies at least one of the following tests (i) creates rights, or obligations, which are not ordinarily created between persons dealing at arm's length; (ii) results, directly or indirectly, in misuse, or abuse, of the provisions of the Income Tax Act, 1961; (iii) lacks commercial substance or is deemed to lack commercial substance, in whole or in part; or (iv) is entered into, or carried out, by means, or in a manner, that is not ordinarily engaged for bona fide purposes. If GAAR provisions are invoked, the tax authorities will have wider powers, including denial of tax benefit or a benefit under a tax treaty. In the absence of any precedents on the subject, the application of these provisions is uncertain. As the taxation regime in India is undergoing a significant overhaul, its consequent effects on economy cannot be determined at present and there can be no assurance that such effects would not adversely affect our business, future financial performance and the trading price of the Equity Shares.

71. Financial instability, economic developments and volatility in securities markets in other countries may also cause the price of the Equity Shares to decline.

The Indian market and the Indian economy are influenced by economic and market conditions in other countries, particularly emerging Asian market countries. Financial turmoil in Europe and elsewhere in the world in recent years has affected the Indian economy. In recent times, the Indian financial markets had been negatively affected by the volatility in global financial market, including on account of certain European nations' debt troubles and move to break away by the United Kingdom from the European Union. Although, economic conditions are different in each country, investors' reactions to developments in one country can have adverse effects on the securities of companies in other countries, including India. Currencies of a few Asian countries have in the past suffered depreciation against the U.S. Dollar owing to, amongst other, the announcements by the U.S. government that it may consider reducing its quantitative easing measures. A loss of investor confidence in the financial systems of other emerging markets may cause increased volatility in Indian financial markets and, indirectly, in the Indian economy in general. Any worldwide financial instability could also have a negative impact on the Indian economy. Financial disruptions may occur and could harm our business, future financial performance and the prices of the Equity Shares.

72. A significant change in the Government of India's economic liberalization and deregulation policies could adversely affect our business and the price of our Equity Shares.

The Government of India has traditionally exercised, and continues to exercise, a dominant influence over many aspects of the economy. Unfavourable government policies including those relating to the internet and e-commerce, consumer protection and data privacy, could adversely affect business and economic conditions in India, and could also affect our ability to implement our strategy and our future financial performance. Since 1991, successive governments, including coalition governments, have pursued policies of economic liberalization, including significantly relaxing restrictions on the private sector and encouraging the development of the Indian financial sector. However, the members of the Government of India and the composition of the coalition in power are subject to change. As a result, it is difficult to predict the economic policies that will be pursued by the Government of India. For example, there may be an increasing number of laws and regulations pertaining to the internet and e-commerce, which may relate to liability for information retrieved from or transmitted over the internet or mobile networks, user privacy, content restrictions and the quality of services and products sold or provided through the internet. The rate of economic liberalization could change and specific laws and policies affecting the financial services industry, foreign investment, currency exchange and other matters affecting investment in our securities could change as well.

Any significant change in India's economic liberalization and deregulation policies could adversely affect business and economic conditions in India generally and our business in particular.

DETAILS OF UTILIZATION OF ISSUE PROCEEDS

1. Working Capital Requirement

Our business is working capital intensive, and we fund a majority of our working capital requirements in the ordinary course of business from banks, and through our internal accruals. Our Company requires additional working capital for funding its incremental working capital requirements in the Financial Year ending March 31, 2026. The funding of the incremental working capital requirements of our Company will help lead to a consequent increase in our profitability and in achieving the proposed targets as per our business plan. We intend to utilise Rs. 2,090.00 Lakhs from the Net Proceeds to fund working capital requirements of our Company in the Financial Years ended March 31, 2026.

Rationale for Rising Working Capital

Our revenue is currently generated through two primary business models: the Agent Channel and the Digital Channel. Presently, approximately 86% of our revenue is derived from the Agent Model, while the Digital Model contributes around 14%. Over the next few years, we intend to evolve this mix and diversify our offerings further by:

- Increasing the Digital Channel's contribution to 28% by FY26, with the Agent Channel expected to contribute approximately 72%.
- Within the agent channel we plan to increase our focus on secured lending, thereby increasing the share of secured products in our overall lending portfolio. This strategic shift helps us in diversifying our product mix, risk mitigation as secured lending tends to be less impacted by economic slowdowns and also enhances revenue stability and long-term profitability.

Strategic Focus Areas

1. Digital Segment.

Our focus on expanding the Digital Business is closely aligned with our objective of Funding for Business Development and Marketing Activities. This strategic investment aims to enhance brand visibility, strengthen customer acquisition efforts, and drive deeper market penetration in the digital space. The digital segment, with its higher EBITDA margin of 12%, offers greater profitability. By increasing the revenue contribution from this channel, we seek to achieve overall margin expansion and ensure sustainable, scalable growth.

2. Secured Lending.

We are strategically expanding into secured lending, which offers a robust complement to our digital growth ambitions and strengthens our position as a full-stack financial platform. This move is motivated by the following:

- Higher revenue per customer due to larger ticket sizes and longer loan tenures
- Diversification of our portfolio, reducing dependence on short-term unsecured products and building resilience across credit cycles. By adding secured loans, they hedge against risk and become more resilient to credit cycle fluctuations (e.g., when unsecured demand dips, secured demand often holds strong).
- Agent-Digital model readiness, where secured loans offer a natural opportunity to blend digital onboarding with offline documentation and verification touchpoints.

Working Capital Considerations

Our working capital strategy is being restructured to reflect this dual-focused business expansion — into both Digital Lending and Secured Lending.

Trade Receivables

In the case of secured loans, upon execution of the loan agreement by the customer and submission of the mandatory supporting documents, lenders may record the loan as technically “disbursed” in their internal systems. This generally occurs during periodic sales closure exercises (such as month-end). However, the actual release of loan proceeds is subject to completion of registration requirements and submission of post-disbursal documents, including updated encumbrance certificates, municipal challans, affidavits, and other mandated documents. The completion of these formalities may extend over a period of 30–60 days or longer, depending on the jurisdiction and nature of the transaction. Commission income for our Company accrues and becomes receivable only upon submission of all required documentation and the lender’s final disbursement of the loan.

In the case of Balance Transfer and Top-up loans, the process involves additional steps. The new lender initially disburses an amount equivalent to the outstanding balance in the name of the existing lender. Following such disbursement, the existing lender may take up to 30 days to release the borrower’s property documents. The borrower thereafter deposits the original property documents with the new lender, pursuant to which the top-up loan amount is disbursed. Certain lenders may also require updated documents, such as bank statements, payslips, or end-use certificates, prior to final disbursement. Consequently, BT and Top-up transactions may extend over 60–90 days, and our Company’s commission income accrues and becomes receivable only upon completion of the entire disbursement process by the new lender.

With respect to agent commissions, our Company is required to make upfront payments to agents once the loan has been sanctioned and is recorded as technically disbursed in the lender’s system. However, the receipt of corresponding commission income by our Company from the lender is contingent upon completion of the loan registration and documentation process, which occurs subsequent to such upfront agent payments. This results in a mismatch between agent payouts and lender remittances, thereby extending the working capital cycle of our Company, particularly in the case of secured loans and BT/Top-up transactions.

Illustrative Flow:

Rationale for the increase in working capital requirement of the company for FY 2024 and FY 2025

Increase in Current Assets

- Trade receivables increased from ₹2,714.98 lakhs to ₹3,510.35 lakhs, broadly in line with the increase in revenue.
- Short-term loans and advances rose from ₹586.45 lakhs to ₹1,196.75 lakhs, primarily due to: an increase in loans and advances to employees from ₹72.22 lakhs to ₹87.53 lakhs, increase in advances to suppliers (agents) from ₹357.37 lakhs to ₹854.00 lakhs, and increase in balances with government authorities from ₹156.87 lakhs to ₹255.22 lakhs.

- Other current assets increased from ₹371.32 lakhs to ₹570.76 lakhs, mainly on account of higher other assets, rental advances, and accrued interest.

Decrease in Current Liabilities

- Trade payables decreased significantly from ₹1,241.02 lakhs to ₹445.80 lakhs.
- Other current liabilities increased slightly from ₹374.53 lakhs to ₹388.84 lakhs, mainly due to an increase in expenses payable from ₹78.44 lakhs to ₹120.72 lakhs.
- Short-term provisions rose from ₹260.57 lakhs to ₹380.90 lakhs, primarily due to higher income tax provisions, which increased from ₹253.54 lakhs to ₹366.17 lakhs.

Impact on Working Capital

As a result of the above movements in current assets and current liabilities, the Company's working capital requirement increased from ₹1,796.63 lakhs in FY 2024 to ₹4,062.31 lakhs in FY 2025.

Reasons in Fluctuations in Working Capital to turnover ratio

Our revenue is primarily derived from two channels: the digital marketplace and the agent marketplace.

FY 2024 vs. FY 2023

- Revenue Mix: Contribution from the digital marketplace increased from 12.21% to 13.97%, while contribution from the agent marketplace decreased from 87.79% to 86.03%.
- Trade Receivables: As a percentage of revenue, trade receivables rose from 11.10% to 14.33%, in line with revenue growth and the higher share of the digital marketplace, which generally has longer receivable cycles. Additionally, receivable days have increased among existing customers. Some lenders now conduct additional post-disbursement loan verification before invoice generation, extending collection periods.
- Trade Payables: Trade payables as a percentage of revenue increased slightly from 6.11% to 6.55%. However, this increase was lower than the growth in revenue, reflecting a reduced share of the agent marketplace, which typically allows for extended credit terms.
- Working Capital Requirement: The rise in working capital requirement during FY 2024 is consistent with the above factors—higher receivables and relatively slower growth in payables.

FY 2025 vs. FY 2024

- Revenue Mix: Contribution from the digital marketplace further increased from 13.97% to 14.54%, while the agent marketplace contribution decreased from 86.03% to 85.46%.
- Trade Receivables: As a percentage of revenue, trade receivables increased from 14.33% to 15.77%, again in line with revenue growth and the higher digital marketplace share.
- Trade Payables: Trade payables as a percentage of revenue declined sharply from 6.55% to 2.00%, due to prepayments made to DSAs to build trust and secure more favorable terms for future collaborations.
- Working Capital Requirement: The overall increase in working capital requirement reflects the combined impact of higher receivables and reduced payables resulting from strategic prepayments.

Trade Receivable	41	52	58	54	68
Trade Payables	22	24	7	8	23

Justifications for holdings levels:

Trade Receivable	In our company, Trade Receivable Days represent the time taken to collect payments from banks. Fiscal 24 as compared to Fiscal 23 Receivable Days increased from 41 to 52. The increase suggests either slower collections or extended payment terms with banks to accommodate higher revenue. Fiscal 25 as compared to Fiscal 24 Receivable Days increase from 52 to 58. The increase suggests either slower collections or extended payment terms with banks to accommodate higher revenue. For Fiscal 26 As part of our future growth plans the Company intends to venture into secured loans, increase focus on the digital partnerships etc. These products usually have a higher receivable cycle compared to existing business mix. In the secured loans the loan the payments cycles are longer as the lender usually pays after all post disbursement documents, registrations etc are complete and hence can take anywhere between 30-90 days. Similarly for digital lending segment the payment cycles can stretch to 60 days. Hence we have assumed average trade receivables at 68 days to ensure stability in our working capital.
Trade Payables	In our company, Trade Payable Days reflect the time you take to pay commissions to DSAs. Fiscal 24 as compared to Fiscal 23 Trade Payable Days increased slightly from 22 days to 24 days, indicating a minor delay in payments to DSAs. This was likely due to slower collections from banks during the year, which impacted the payment cycle. Fiscal 25 as compared to Fiscal 24 Trade payable days decreased from 24 to 7 days, reflecting quicker payments to DSAs. The improvement showing timely payments to DSAs to strengthen trust and Foster better terms for future collaborations. For Fiscal 26 We plan to maintain Trade Payable Days at 23 days, ensuring a consistent payment schedule to DSAs while supporting stable relationships and operational efficiency. Faster payments to agents is a critical lever for the Company to attract newer agents under its fold. Also it is almost in line with our current payment cycle.
Other Current Assets	Other current assets include deposits, MAT credit entitlements, other miscellaneous assets, and rental advances. These are projected to increase proportionally with the overall growth in operations and business activities.
Other Current Liability	Other current liabilities comprise statutory dues, expenses payable, and other obligations. We anticipate a proportional increase in these liabilities in line with the growth in business operations and compliance requirements.
Short Term Provision	Short-term provisions include allocations for employee benefits and income tax provisions. The projected years are expected to see an increase in short-term provisions due to higher profitability, which will result in a rise in income tax provisions. Additionally, provisions for employee benefits are forecasted to grow as the company plans to undertake new hiring in the projected period to support operational expansion.

Short Term Loans and Advances	Short-term loans and advances comprise loans and advances to employees, supplier advances, and balances with government authorities (Constitutes TDS Receivable.. These are expected to increase in the projected years as business operations scale up and new personnel are onboarded to meet the demands of expansion. Also considering that our agents are mostly from the unorganized sector and do not have access to formal sources of credit they rely on advance from us for further business expansion and growth.

If the working capital is not utilized in FY 2026, it will be utilized in subsequent years.

As per the certificate dated 13 October 2025, issued by our Statutory Auditors, M/s B B S K and Associates, Chartered Accountants, have compiled and confirmed the working capital estimates and working capital projections.

2. Investment In Wholly Owned Subsidiary i.e. LTCV Credit Private Limited

Introduction

Finbud, leveraging its extensive experience in the lending sector, is set to invest Rs. 1,500.00 Lakhs into its wholly-owned subsidiary, LTCV Credit Private Limited. LTCV Credit is a Non-Deposit Taking Non-Banking Financial Company (ND-NBFC) registered with the Reserve Bank of India. This capital infusion aims to augment the Net Owned Funds of LTCV Credit, ensuring compliance with evolving regulatory requirements while strengthening its financial foundation to support expanded business operations. The increased capital will enable enhanced lending capacity and growth in the NBFC's loan portfolio.

Background

LTCV Credit Private Limited, a wholly owned subsidiary of our Company, is a non-deposit taking Non-Banking Financial Company registered with the Reserve Bank of India. As per the Master Direction – Reserve Bank of India (Non-Banking Financial Company – Scale Based Regulation) Directions, 2023 (the “Scale-Based Regulation Framework”), LTCV Credit is classified within the Base Layer (“NBFC-BL”). Pursuant to Paragraph 8(1) of the Scale-Based Regulation Framework, the RBI has prescribed a phased increase in the minimum Net Owned Fund requirement for NBFCs-BL, from ₹2 crore to ₹5 crore by March 31, 2025, and to ₹10 crore by March 31, 2027.

In view of the aforesaid regulatory requirement, and with the objective of ensuring early and continued compliance with the revised NOF thresholds, our Company proposes to infuse capital aggregating to ₹1,500.00 lakhs into LTCV Credit. The said infusion is intended to augment the NOF of the subsidiary, thereby ensuring uninterrupted regulatory compliance and operational continuity over the medium term.

In addition to regulatory alignment, this capital infusion forms part of the Company’s strategic business integration initiative. Our Company operates a hybrid customer acquisition platform for loan products, comprising both agent-led and digital-led channels, through which it generates a significant volume of borrower leads. Historically, such leads have been matched with third-party financial institutions for disbursement. Following the proposed capital infusion, our Company intends to direct a portion of qualified and high-quality borrowers lead to LTCV Credit, subject to applicable laws and contractual arrangements with partner lenders.

The ability to originate loans through a wholly owned subsidiary NBFC enables the Company to internalize margins otherwise shared with external lending partners, optimize lead monetization, and offer tailored credit products under controlled underwriting criteria. The vertical integration further facilitates enhanced control over credit, customer experience, and portfolio economics. It is expected that such integration will support margin expansion, risk-adjusted return optimization, and improved asset quality management at the group level.

Key Business Objectives

As a group, our leadership team possesses significant expertise in the lending industry. We operate a robust acquisition engine that generates substantial demand annually. This capability is complemented by deep insights into customer profiles, allowing for precise risk assessment and management. The investment in LTCV Credit will further enhance our ability to analyze repayment behaviors and refine our lending strategies, ultimately leading to improved portfolio performance.

By investing in our own NBFC, Finbud aims to achieve vertical integration, complementing its existing role as a distributor for other lenders. The funds will be allocated toward launching and scaling a diversified product portfolio, enhancing technology and analytics capabilities, and managing operational costs efficiently. The product mix will cater to both salaried and self-employed customers, leveraging Finbud's deep expertise in loan distribution and customer relationship management.

Our company has been a successful distributor of unsecured and secured loan products for multiple lenders, building a strong customer base and a comprehensive understanding of the credit ecosystem. Establishing direct lending operations through LTCV Credit will allow Finbud to originate and manage loans directly, capturing a larger share of the value chain. This strategic move aligns with our objective to optimize costs and maintain better control over credit underwriting and lifecycle management.

3. Funding for Part of Business Development and Marketing Activities

Introduction

We plan to allocate ₹1,775.00 lakhs from the Net Proceeds for marketing activities in Fiscal 2026. Our deployment of the Net Proceeds for this Object and the medium through which marketing initiatives may be undertaken is based on management estimates, current circumstances of our business and prevailing market conditions and contingent on various internal and external factors, such as our Company's business and marketing plans, expected viewership of advertisements in different geographies or user segments, our proposed services and product launches, the nature of our marketing campaigns and advertising, etc. Further, maintaining and improving our marketing strategies may involve expenditures which may not be proportionate to the revenue generated and consumers acquired.

Background

Finance Buddha started working on digital customer acquisition by focusing on targeting customers which is already part of its customer base. The objective was to target consumers with specific products and offers based on their individual profiles. The focus was on personalization and communicating to the customer about the offers available to them based on their profile. The marketing strategy hence was anchored in push-based channels such as SMS, IVR and WhatsApp, enabling the business to achieve significant scale.

These channels have played a crucial role in direct customer outreach and will remain an integral part of our strategy moving forward. However, while push-based marketing provides immediacy, it also comes with limitations such as regulatory constraints, message deliverability issues, and lower engagement rates over time.

To complement our existing push-based efforts, drive further growth and expand the customer base, the company has decided to take a more balanced strategy going forward, and hence is strategically incorporating pull-based channels. Unlike outbound push marketing, pull marketing attracts customers with demonstrated intent, leading to higher-quality engagement and improved conversion rates. These platforms leverage search intent, audience targeting, and behavioral insights, ensuring our messaging reaches users who are actively seeking our offerings. Additionally, pull-based marketing strengthens brand recall and provides a more seamless customer journey by aligning with users' needs at the right moment.

In parallel, the company continues to invest in last-mile outreach activities through its agent-led channel, which remains a key pillar of its hybrid distribution model. Our network of master agents and last-mile agents plays an active role in customer engagement, especially in underpenetrated Tier 2 and Tier 3 geographies. These agents participate in localized marketing initiatives such as setting up informational kiosks in high-footfall areas (e.g., markets, railway stations, corporate parks), conducting door-to-door awareness campaigns, organizing financial literacy drives, and facilitating onboarding at workplace clusters or community gatherings. These activities help build trust, increase awareness of loan offerings, and drive origination in segments that may not be fully accessible via digital channels alone.

Further, periodic agent engagement events including regional training programs, incentive recognition drives, and branded outreach campaigns are conducted to strengthen their alignment with business objectives and improve field-level execution. Through these last-mile initiatives, agents not only serve as acquisition points but also function as brand representatives, enabling contextual communication and handholding for first-time borrowers.

There is also a growing focus on customer engagement and retention and a blended marketing strategy which is multi-channel allows us to engage with the customers on a deeper level. The company has now started migrating towards this blended approach and will be focusing on the same going forward. This balanced approach maintaining push-based channels for continued reach while leveraging pull-based channels for expansion will ensure sustainable growth, a higher volume of quality leads, and an optimized marketing ROI.

Details of expenditure made in last three fiscal years on sales and marketing expenditure are as follows:

INTRODUCTION¹

The global economy witnessed steady but uneven growth across regions in 2024. A key trend was the slowdown in global manufacturing, particularly in Europe and parts of Asia, driven by supply chain disruptions and subdued external demand. In contrast, the services sector showed resilience and played a pivotal role in supporting growth across many economies. While inflationary pressures eased globally, services inflation remained stubborn. Although commodity prices stabilized, the risk of broad-based price increases still looms. As a result, with disinflation progressing slowly and growth diverging across economies, central banks are expected to adopt varied paths in monetary policy, adding to uncertainty over future interest rates and inflation trends.

Compounding this uncertainty are geopolitical tensions, ongoing conflicts, and trade policy risks, all of which continue to challenge global economic stability.

Against this global backdrop, India maintained steady economic momentum. According to the first advance estimates of national accounts, India’s real GDP is projected to grow by 6.4% in FY25. Growth in the first half of the fiscal year was primarily driven by the agriculture and services sectors. Rural demand picked up due to record Kharif crop production and favorable weather conditions. However, the manufacturing sector remained under pressure from weak global demand and seasonal domestic factors.

Private consumption stayed steady, supported by sustained domestic demand. On the macroeconomic front, fiscal prudence, a healthy current account position driven by a surplus in services trade, and strong remittance inflows contributed to overall stability, laying the groundwork for continued growth despite global headwinds.

Looking ahead to FY26, India’s economic outlook remains balanced. Risks include heightened geopolitical tensions, trade disruptions, and potential commodity price shocks. On the domestic front, translating strong order books in the private capital goods sector into sustained investment, improving consumer sentiment, and increases in corporate wages will be critical for growth acceleration.

A rebound in agricultural output, easing food inflation, and a stable macroeconomic environment are likely to support rural demand and provide further impetus to near-term growth. Over the medium term, India’s growth potential will depend on enhancing global competitiveness through structural reforms and deregulation at the grassroots level.

GLOBAL ECONOMY¹

Steady global growth and varied regional dynamics

The year 2024 has been marked by significant global developments, both politically and economically. A standout feature has been the unprecedented scale of electoral activity, with more than half of the world’s population participating in major elections across various countries. Simultaneously, geopolitical tensions deepened, particularly due to the ongoing Russia-Ukraine and Israel-Hamas conflicts, heightening regional instability and impacting global energy and food security. These disruptions contributed to rising prices and inflationary pressures across many economies.

Cybersecurity also emerged as a growing concern, with the increased digitization of critical infrastructure making systems more vulnerable to frequent and severe cyberattacks, resulting in substantial human and financial costs.

Geopolitical risks and heightened policy uncertainty—especially regarding trade—reshaped global trade dynamics and fueled volatility in financial markets. Despite these challenges, global economic growth remained moderately stable. The global economy grew by 3.3% in 2023, and the International Monetary Fund (IMF) projects growth of 3.2% in 2024 and 3.3% in 2025. Over the next five years, global growth is expected to average around 3.2%, which is modest relative to historical norms. While the overall global outlook is stable, growth patterns vary significantly across regions.

Advanced economies (AEs) demonstrated resilience in the first half of 2024 despite elevated interest rates, benefiting from easing inflation, steady employment, and robust consumption. However, the growth outlook diverges between the United States and the Euro Area. The U.S. economy is expected to expand by 2.8% in 2024, followed by a slight slowdown in 2025 due to moderating consumption and exports. In contrast, the Euro Area is projected to grow from 0.4% in 2023 to 0.8% in 2024 and 1.0% in 2025, driven by a recovery in services. Nonetheless, growth performance across Europe remains uneven.

Countries such as Spain, France, Poland, and the United Kingdom have benefited from a strong services sector. Conversely, manufacturing-driven economies like Germany and Austria continue to face headwinds due to weak global demand. Structural challenges in Germany’s manufacturing sector have been particularly pronounced, contributing to the broader slowdown in European industrial output. Additionally, political uncertainty in major economies like France and Germany has further complicated the policy landscape.

The divergence in economic performance between the U.S. and Europe is also evident in the Citi Economic Surprise Index, which tracks actual data releases against market expectations. From January 2023 to November 2024, U.S. data consistently exceeded analyst expectations more frequently than European data, underscoring the relative strength of the U.S. economy.

In Asia, Japan’s growth was hampered early in the year by domestic supply disruptions. Meanwhile, China experienced a slowdown after a strong first quarter, as weak private consumption, sluggish investment, and ongoing challenges in the real estate sector weighed on overall economic activity.

Services sector growth steady; manufacturing faces challenges

The global composite Purchasing Managers' Index (PMI) remained in the expansion zone for the fourteenth consecutive month as of December 2024. While the services sector continued to demonstrate resilience, the manufacturing sector showed signs of weakness, with the manufacturing PMI indicating contraction.

In early 2024, the global manufacturing PMI entered expansion territory for the first time since mid-2023 and maintained that momentum through the first half of the year. However, by July 2024, deteriorating conditions pushed the index back into contraction. After four consecutive months of decline, the global manufacturing sector stabilized in November, with the PMI registering at 50.0—signifying no net change in overall operating conditions. Growth in consumer and intermediate goods output offset the downturn in investment goods. The uptick in production was driven by steady new order inflows and the clearance of backlogs.

Regional production trends showed wide disparities in December. Of the 30 countries with available PMI data for the month, only 13 reported a rise in production. The Eurozone recorded the sharpest contractions, particularly in France, Germany, and Austria. In North America, results were mixed: Canada reported output growth, while the U.S. and Mexico saw declines. India stood out with the strongest output expansion among all reporting nations. Despite these mixed results, global manufacturing sentiment in December remained subdued, with business confidence falling to a three-month low.

On the services side, the global Services PMI Business Activity Index climbed to a four-month high of 53.8 in December, marking the twenty-third consecutive month of expansion. The growth was broad-based, with business, consumer, and financial services all contributing. Among them, financial services posted the fastest rate of expansion.

Inflationary pressures ease, but risks of synchronised price pressures persist

Inflation rates across major economies have continued to decline steadily, approaching central bank targets. This trend has been driven by tighter global monetary policies and improvements in supply chain adaptability amid heightened economic uncertainty. In 2023, easing price pressures were largely due to falling fuel prices, while in 2024, the decline in inflation was primarily attributed to a broad-based reduction in goods inflation.

Despite this progress, the pace of disinflation has begun to slow, largely due to persistent inflation in the services sector. In contrast, core goods inflation has diminished to negligible levels. According to the October 2024 edition of the IMF’s World Economic Outlook (WEO), this persistence is linked to nominal wage growth outpacing pre-pandemic trends. However, the report also highlights early signs of easing wage pressures, which could support further disinflation.

Nonetheless, recent disruptions in global shipping have reversed some of the gains in goods price stability. These events have placed renewed pressure on global supply chains, as reflected in an uptick in the Global Supply Chain Pressure Index (GSCPI) during the quarter ending September 2024. Although container freight rates had stabilized in 2023, they surged again in 2024 due to rising demand, disruptions in Red Sea shipping routes, and congestion at the Panama Canal—factors that have partially sustained inflationary pressures.

Looking ahead to 2025–2026, the risk of inflation being driven by commodity price increases appears limited. Following a decline in 2024, commodity prices are expected to ease further in the near term. While this downward trend is encouraging, the potential for synchronized price spikes remains, especially during periods of global economic stress. Although recent shocks—such as geopolitical conflicts and extreme weather events—have caused temporary price volatility, their effects have largely tapered off. Still, the ongoing escalation of geopolitical tensions poses a continuing risk to inflation control, potentially weakening the effectiveness of current disinflation efforts.

Easing monetary policy stances amidst divergent expectations

With inflation declining sharply, major central banks have begun shifting their policy stance toward monetary easing by reducing policy rates. However, due to differing economic conditions across countries, the pace of rate cuts is expected to vary. Additionally, there remains considerable uncertainty around where policy rates will settle over the next year and what the terminal rates will be at the end of this easing cycle.

In the short term, U.S. market expectations for the Federal Funds Rate (FFR) were significantly lower than the actual FFR levels throughout 2023 and 2024, highlighting the persistent gap between projections and reality. Similar uncertainty is likely to continue in 2025. A useful way to gauge this uncertainty is through the Federal Open Market Committee's (FOMC) "dot plot," which reflects members' views on the likely path of interest rates over different time horizons. FOMC dot plots from December 2021, 2023, and 2024. While these show a general expectation for a higher long-run policy rate, the growing dispersion in member projections points to increased uncertainty around the eventual terminal rate.

The progress in controlling inflation, coupled with monetary policy easing and expectations of lower borrowing costs, led to a decline in sovereign bond yields in advanced economies between April and September 2024. However, renewed concerns over inflation and ambiguity around future monetary policy directions triggered a reversal, with bond yields rising again between October and December 2024. In contrast, weaker growth prospects and deflationary pressures in China caused a drop in its sovereign bond yields, further widening the yield gap between the world's two largest economies.

Geopolitical uncertainties continue to pose risks to the global economic outlook

Geopolitical risks remain significantly elevated, driven by ongoing conflicts that continue to pose substantial threats to the global economic outlook. These risks have the potential to affect global growth, inflation, financial markets, and supply chains. An escalation of conflicts in the Middle East or a worsening of the Russia-Ukraine war could lead to a repricing of sovereign risk in the affected regions and disrupt global energy markets. Although the oil market is currently well-supplied, any damage to energy infrastructure could constrain supply, heightening uncertainty in the global economy.

Ongoing tensions in the Middle East have already impacted trade flows through the Suez Canal—one of the world's most critical shipping arteries, typically handling around 15% of global maritime trade. In response to security concerns, many shipping companies have rerouted vessels around the Cape of Good Hope, increasing average delivery times by over 10 days. These disruptions have driven up freight rates along key global shipping routes, thereby affecting the overall cost and efficiency of international trade.

Geopolitical Risk (GPR) Index higher in 2024

World Trade Uncertainty Index (WTUI) elevated in 2024

The persistence of elevated geopolitical tensions is further reflected in indices such as the Geopolitical Economic Policy Uncertainty Index, which remains high amid global concerns over economic policy direction. Similarly, the World Trade Uncertainty Index has risen, spurred by increasing trade tensions and policy shifts across major economies. Although trade policy uncertainty has not yet returned to the peak levels seen during 2018–19, it has risen sharply in recent months.

The stock of import-restrictive measures across G20 countries continues to expand, now affecting 12.7% of G20 imports—more than three times the level recorded in 2015. If such uncertainties persist and protectionist policies continue to spread, the global economy could face higher costs and prices, reduced investment and innovation, and a weakening of overall growth momentum. In response to these trends, Chapter 5 of the Survey focuses on the medium-term global outlook and emphasizes the importance of strengthening domestic growth drivers to mitigate external vulnerabilities.

INDIAN ECONOMY

According to the First Advance Estimates released by the National Statistical Office (NSO), Ministry of Statistics & Programme Implementation (MoSPI), India's real GDP growth for FY25 is projected at 6.4%. On the demand side, Private Final Consumption Expenditure (PFCE) at constant prices is expected to rise by 7.3%, supported by a recovery in rural demand. PFCE as a percentage of GDP (at current prices) is anticipated to increase from 60.3% in FY24 to 61.8% in FY25, marking its highest level since FY03. Additionally, Gross Fixed Capital Formation (GFCF) at constant prices is estimated to grow by 6.4%, indicating healthy investment activity.

Increased uncertainty over the long-term level of Federal Funds rate

On the supply side, Gross Value Added (GVA) at constant prices is also expected to expand by 6.4% in FY25. The agriculture sector is projected to recover with a growth rate of 3.8%, while the industrial sector is estimated to grow by 6.2%, supported by robust performance in construction, and utilities like electricity, gas, and water supply. The services sector is likely to remain strong, with an estimated growth of 7.2%, driven by solid momentum in financial services, real estate, professional services, public administration, and defence.

Resilient Recovery

The COVID-19 pandemic caused widespread disruption across global economies. The Economic Survey 2023-24 had compared India's post-pandemic trajectory up to Q4 FY24 with pre-pandemic trends and found that the economy had recovered fast enough to avoid a permanent loss in output.

The broader economic picture remains positive. Aggregate Gross Value Added (GVA) exceeded its pre-pandemic trend in Q1 FY25 and has continued to remain above it through H1 FY25. The agriculture sector remains particularly strong, consistently outperforming trend levels. The industrial sector has also regained momentum and moved above its pre-pandemic path. Meanwhile, strong growth in recent years has brought the services sector close to its long-term trajectory.

Within industry, performances vary across sub-sectors. Construction has been a standout performer since mid-FY21, currently operating around 15% above its pre-pandemic trend, supported by infrastructure development and rising housing demand. The utilities sector (electricity, gas, water supply, etc.) reached trend levels by end-FY23 and has stayed above them. Manufacturing continues to recover but remains slightly below trend, while mining lags further behind.

In the services sector, recovery has been uneven. Financial, real estate, and professional services surpassed pre-pandemic levels by the end of FY23. Public administration, defence, and other services crossed their trend levels for the first time in Q1 FY25. Meanwhile, contact-intensive sectors—including trade, hotels, transport, and communication—continue to catch up after being severely impacted by lockdowns and reduced demand for travel and hospitality.

Growth in H1 FY25 Led by Agriculture and Services

Real GVA grew by 6.2% in H1 FY25. While Q1 saw strong growth, Q2 experienced a slowdown. The agriculture and services sectors were the key contributors, whereas industrial growth—especially in manufacturing—moderated due to weak global demand and supply chain disruptions.

Improved Agricultural Outlook

Agriculture growth remained steady in H1 FY25, with Q2 recording 3.5% growth—an improvement over the past four quarters. This was supported by a record Kharif output, above-normal monsoons, and adequate reservoir levels. First advance estimates for FY25 peg Kharif foodgrain production at 1,647.05 lakh metric tonnes, up 5.7% YoY and 8.2% above the five-year average. The increase is driven by higher output of rice, maize, coarse grains, and oilseeds. A normal southwest monsoon has improved rabi season irrigation prospects, with wheat and gram sowing up 1.4% and 0.8%, respectively, as of January 10, 2025. These positive developments may help ease food inflation pressures.

Manufacturing Slows but Outlook Remains Positive

The industrial sector grew by 6% in H1 FY25, with 8.3% growth in Q1 moderating in Q2 due to:

1. Slower manufacturing exports amid weak external demand and protectionist policies abroad.
2. Heavy monsoons that, while aiding agriculture, disrupted mining, construction, and manufacturing.
3. Festive season timing variations, which impacted Q2 performance.

Sub-sector data reveals mixed trends. Oil companies faced inventory losses and lower refining margins. Steel suffered from falling global prices, while cement demand weakened due to heavy rains. However, with the monsoon over and public capex expected to rise, cement, iron, and steel may recover. Mining and electricity sectors are also expected to normalise.

Despite near-term hurdles, India continues to lead globally in Manufacturing PMI growth. The December 2024 PMI remained well within expansion territory, with growth driven by new orders, robust demand, and effective marketing. International orders also rose to a four-month high, signalling improving global demand.

Strong Services Sector Performance

The services sector posted a solid 7.1% growth in H1 FY25, supported by broad-based strength across all sub-sectors. High-frequency indicators confirm this performance:

- PMI Services remained in the expansion zone due to rising orders, output, and employment.
- Hospitality performed well, with stable occupancy rates and increased room rates due to strong corporate and leisure travel.
- Air cargo activity grew in double digits, while port traffic remained steady.
- IT companies reported better results compared to the previous quarter.

GDP Growth and Expenditure-Side Analysis

India's real GDP grew by 6.7% in Q1 and 5.4% in Q2 FY25, yielding an average 6.0% growth in H1 FY25.

Private Final Consumption Expenditure (PFCE) rose 6.7% YoY in H1. Though disaggregated data is unavailable, two- and three-wheeler sales, and tractor sales suggest that rural consumption played a key role. A NABARD survey (Jan 2025) found that 78.5% of rural households increased their consumption over the past year. With strong Kharif returns and higher MSPs, this momentum is expected to persist.

Urban demand, however, showed mixed trends:

- Passenger vehicle sales growth slowed to 4.2% YoY (Apr–Nov 2024) from 9.2% last year.
- Urban FMCG growth was moderate (NielsenIQ).
- Air passenger traffic rose by 7.7% YoY during the same period.
- The 7.3% PFCE growth projected for FY25 suggests a pickup in recent months.

Investment Activity Moderates but Shows Green Shoots

Gross Fixed Capital Formation (GFCF) growth slowed to 6.4% in H1 FY25 from 10.1% in H1 FY24. Q1 saw muted government capital expenditure, likely due to general elections. Private sector investment was subdued amid political uncertainty and global headwinds.

A further Q2 slowdown came from a dip in residential investment after a strong surge in recent quarters. However, industry analysts believe the sector is normalising. An inventory overhang of 23 months suggests steady housing demand.

This investment slowdown is likely transitory. Encouraging signs include:

- 8.2% rise in Union government capex (Jul–Nov 2024).
- RBI's OBICUS shows 74.7% capacity utilisation in Q2 FY25—above the long-term average.
- Capital goods companies saw a 23.6% YoY increase in order books in FY24, well above the 4.5% CAGR of the previous four years.
- In H1 FY25, orders rose 10.3% over end-FY24.
- RBI's private investment report indicates investment intentions worth ₹2.45 lakh crore for FY25, up from ₹1.6 lakh crore in FY24. Some of this may spill over into FY26.

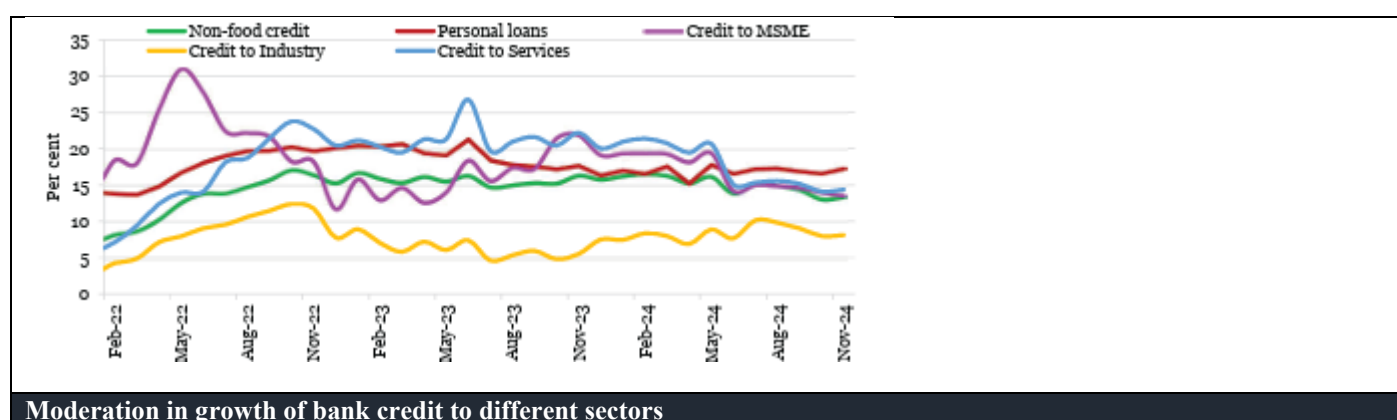

External Sector and Macroeconomic Stability

On the external front, exports of goods and non-factor services (at constant prices) grew by 5.6% in H1 FY25, while imports rose by 0.7%. In Q2, imports contracted by 2.9%, primarily due to declining commodity prices. As a result, net exports contributed positively to real GDP growth.

As India's economy continues to expand, it does so on the back of stable inflation, sound fiscal management, and a resilient balance of payments—foundational elements supporting sustained growth.

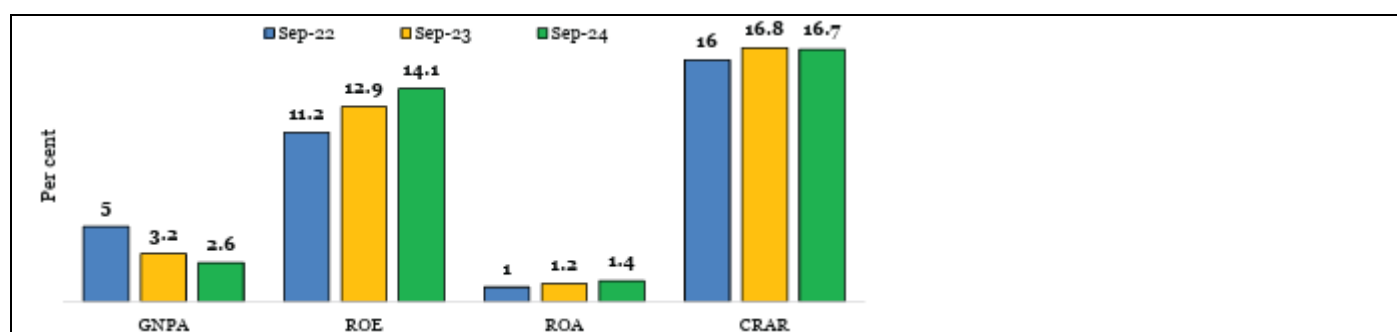

Financial sector prospects amid a moderation of growth in credit disbursal

The banking and financial sector in India remains stable, well-capitalised, and continues to effectively support the financing needs of the economy. Credit disbursal by Scheduled Commercial Banks (SCBs) continues to grow at a double-digit pace, although the rate of growth has moderated in recent months. This slowdown is attributed to a high base effect and regulatory tightening in segments that had previously experienced rapid expansion. In response to the high growth in certain categories of consumer credit, the Reserve Bank of India (RBI), on November 16, 2023, increased the risk weights on unsecured retail loans by 25 basis points. Despite this, credit expansion remains broad-based, with housing loans being the primary contributor. Alongside personal loans, credit to the services sector is another key driver of gross bank credit growth. While industrial credit growth has started to improve, it still lags behind growth rates in other major sectors.

Moderation in growth of bank credit to different sectors

The strength of the banking sector is further underscored by improving asset quality, robust capital adequacy, and solid operational performance. According to the RBI's Financial Stability Report (FSR) published in December 2024, gross non-performing assets (NPAs) in the banking system have declined to a 12-year low of 2.6% of gross advances. The capital-to-risk-weighted assets ratio (CRAR) of SCBs stood at 16.7% as of September 2024, comfortably above the regulatory requirement. Profitability also improved in the first half of FY25, with SCBs reporting a 22.2% year-on-year increase in profit after tax (PAT), alongside improved Return on Equity (RoE) and Return on Assets (RoA). Stress test results suggest that the capital positions of banks would remain above regulatory thresholds even under adverse macroeconomic conditions.

Stable banking system indicators

While the long-term stability of the banking system is assured, concerns have emerged around the short-term dynamics of mismatched credit and deposit growth. The June 2024 RBI FSR highlighted that episodes where credit growth outpaces deposit growth tend to last for an average of 41 months. In the current cycle, the recent merger of a bank with a non-bank financial institution has prolonged this phase. Historical analysis indicates that credit growth typically leads deposit growth, and eventual alignment tends to occur through a deceleration in credit expansion.

Another area of concern is the rising stress in unsecured retail credit—particularly personal loans and credit cards. As of September 2024, 51.9% of new NPAs in the retail loan segment originated from slippages in unsecured loans. The December 2024 FSR notes that nearly half of the borrowers with credit card or personal loans also hold other retail loans, such as housing or vehicle loans. When defaults occur in unsecured loans, lenders typically classify all outstanding loans of that borrower as non-performing, increasing the risk of delinquency in otherwise secured loan categories.

While the Indian banking system remains resilient, close monitoring is essential—not only of domestic credit trends but also of global financial developments. Volatility in international stock markets, particularly in the United States, may influence Indian market conditions. Any significant correction in the U.S. stock market could have spillover effects on global financial markets, including India.

INDIA'S BANKING SECTOR²

Introduction

As per the Reserve Bank of India (RBI), India's banking sector is sufficiently capitalised and well-regulated. The financial and economic conditions in the country are far superior to any other country in the world. Credit, market and liquidity risk studies suggest that Indian banks are generally resilient and have withstood the global downturn well.

The Indian banking industry has recently witnessed the rollout of innovative banking models like payments and small finance banks. In recent years India has also focused on increasing its banking sector reach, through various schemes like the Pradhan Mantri Jan Dhan Yojana and Post payment banks. Schemes like these coupled with major banking sector reforms like digital payments, neo-banking, a rise of Indian NBFCs and fintech have significantly enhanced India's financial inclusion and helped fuel the credit cycle in the country.

Indian Fintech industry is estimated to be at US$ 150 billion by 2025. India has the 3rd largest FinTech ecosystem globally. India is one of the fastest-growing Fintech markets in the world.

There are currently more than 2,000 DPIIT-recognized Financial Technology (FinTech) businesses in India, and this number is rapidly increasing. The digital payments system in India has evolved the most among 25 countries with India's Immediate Payment Service (IMPS) being the only system at level five in the Faster Payments Innovation Index (FPII). India's Unified Payments Interface (UPI) has also revolutionized real-time payments and strived to increase its global reach in recent years.

Market Size

The Indian banking system consists of 12 public sector banks, 21 private sector banks, 44 foreign banks, 12 Small finance banks. As of April 2024, the total number of micro-ATMs in India reached 17,36,972. Moreover, there are 1,26,593 on-site ATMs and Cash Recycling Machines (CRMs) and 91,826 off-site ATMs and CRMs.

Banks added 2,796 ATMs in the first four months of FY23, against 1,486 in FY22 and 2,815 in FY21. 100% of new bank account openings in rural India are being done digitally. BCG predicts that the proportion of digital payments will grow to 65% by 2026. In 2023, total assets in the public and private banking sectors were US$ 1686.70 billion and US$ 1016.39 billion, respectively. In 2023, assets of public sector banks accounted for 58.31% of the total banking assets (including public, private sector and foreign banks).

The interest income of public banks reached US$ 102.4 billion in 2023. In 2023, interest income in the private banking sector reached US$ 70 billion.

India's digital lending market witnessed a growth of CAGR 39.5% over a span of 10 years. The Indian digital consumer lending market is projected to surpass US$ 720 billion by 2030, representing nearly 55% of the total US$ 1.3 trillion digital lending market opportunity in the country.

According to RBI's Scheduled Banks' Statement, deposits of all scheduled banks collectively surged by a whopping Rs 2.04 lakh crore (US$ 2,452 billion) as of FY24.

According to the RBI, bank deposits stood at Rs. 209.36 trillion (US$ 2507.62 billion) as of May 3, 2024.

BUSINESS OVERVIEW

Started in 2012 with the goal of creating a retail loan marketplace, Finance Buddha first began operations in Bangalore. Today, it operates across India. The company was promoted by Vivek Bhatia, Parag Agarwal, and Parth Pande, all of whom have years of experience in financial services. The Company has partnered with a wide network of lenders to offer tailored loan solutions that meet diverse customer needs.

Finance Buddha is a prominent retail loan aggregation platform in India that helps people get personal loans, business loans, and home loans from banks and non-banking financial companies. The company acquires customers through a hybrid strategy using digital marketing and through a wide network of external agents to reach out to prospective borrowers. Once the intent of the customer has been established, the company uses its matchmaking capabilities to advise the customer on the best suited product for his/her needs by allowing them to compare prospective loan offers across multiple lending institutions and hand holds them through the entire loan documentation process till the final disbursement. The decision to either approve or reject the loan application is with the bank/NBFC and hence the Company doesn’t take any credit risk. Upon loan disbursement the Company earns a commission from the lenders. The service is completely free for the customer and is provided with a seamless end to end journey of loan products from discovery to disbursement.

The Company is uniquely differentiated amongst its competitors by being the only major player to have a hybrid business model – conventional lending i.e., Agent channel and Digital Lending i.e., Digital Channel. As different customer looks for different kind of solutions, the company is able to provide the nuance of solutioning that the conventional lending model provides and the speed and ease of delivery that the digital lending model provides to consumers. Conventional or Agent business is the primary & initial customer acquisition strategy for the Company, here in this case with its widely distributed agent network the company gets access to a curated audience of customers where a large part of the preliminary checks is already done on the consumers, thus resulting in higher conversion rates and more optimised model for the lender ecosystem. Once the data of consumer has been processed on the company’s proprietary tech platform and enriched using proprietary and third-party variables, the same is utilised in the future for cross selling/ up selling the customers through the digital lending ecosystem. This is a key differentiating factor compared to most of its peers who either rely on only conventional lending and thus not having a digital arm allowing them to work on customer lifecycle value management or pure digital players who have a high burn in acquiring the first loan from the customers, and struggle to make margins on the business even after multiple years of existence. This unique laddering approach by Finance Buddha makes it a differentiated player in the loan distribution space in the country.

In simple terms, Finance Buddha’s Agent model focuses on reaching a large number of customers with lower profits per loan, while its digital model focuses on fewer customers but with higher profits. This balanced approach allows the company to grow and stay profitable in the long term.

Below are the details about the revenue from Agent model and Digital model for the stub period ended July 31, 2025, and for the Period ended on March 31, 2025, March 31, 2024, and March 31, 2023 (Standalone).

Economic conditions, such as interest rates and economic stability, influence borrowing demand and borrower creditworthiness.

The market is experiencing significant growth driven by increased digital adoption, with consumers favouring online channels for their convenience, speed, and enhanced accessibility. Data-driven decision making is also transforming the landscape, as advanced analytics improve customer profiling, credit scoring, and the personalization of loan offers. Additionally, it mandates the regulated entities ("REs") to ensure that disbursement is not made to a third-party account, including the accounts of the lending service providers and the digital lending apps/ platforms. Guidelines mandate lenders to provide a precontract Key Fact Statement (KFS) for digital lending products, including Annual Percentage Rate (APR), fees, grievance details, recovery mechanism, and cooling-off period. B. Use of estimates

The preparation of the financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period, reported balances of assets and liabilities, and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities as at the date of the financial statements. Actual results could differ from those estimates. Any revision to accounting estimates is recognised prospectively in current and future periods.

Examples of such estimates include provision for doubtful debts, income taxes, contingent liabilities and useful life of fixed tangible assets and intangible assets.

C. Current-non-current classification

All assets and liabilities are classified into current and non-current.

Assets

An asset is classified as current when it satisfies any of the following criteria:

- a. it is expected to be realised in, or is intended for sale or consumption in, the Company’s normal operating cycle;
- b. it is held primarily for the purpose of being traded;
- c. it is expected to be realised within 12 months after the reporting date; or
- d. it is cash or cash equivalent unless it is restricted from being exchanged or used to settle a liability for at least 12 months after the reporting date.

Current assets include the current portion of non-current financial assets. All other assets are classified as non-current.

E. Trade Receivables and other receivables

Revenue from services comprises service income from marketing of financial products of financial institutions including banks.

G. Provisions, contingent liabilities and contingent assets

Provisions involving substantial degree of estimation in measurement are recognised when there is a present obligation as a result of past events and it is probable that there will be an outflow of resources. Contingent liabilities are not recognised but are disclosed in the notes to financial statements. Contingent assets are neither recognised nor disclosed in the financial statements. Provisions, contingent liabilities and contingent assets are reviewed at each balance sheet date and adjusted to reflect the current best estimates.

H. Earnings per share

Basic earnings per share amounts are computed by dividing the net profit or loss for the period attributable to equity shareholders by weighted average number of shares outstanding during the year. For the purpose of diluted earnings per share, the net profit for the year attributable to equity shareholders and the weighted average number of shares outstanding during the year are adjusted for the effects of all dilutive potential equity shares.

I. Impairment

The Company assesses at each balance sheet date whether there is any indication that an asset may be impaired. If any such indication exists, the Company estimates the recoverable amount of the asset. If such recoverable amount of the asset or the recoverable amount of cash generating unit to which the asset belongs is less than its carrying amount, the carrying amount is reduced to its recoverable amount. The reduction is treated as an impairment loss and is recognised in the profit and loss account. If at the balance sheet date there is an indication that if a previously assessed impairment loss no longer exists, the recoverable amount is reassessed and the asset is reflected at the recoverable amount subject to the maximum amount of depreciated historical cost.

J. Leases

Finance leases, which effectively transfer substantially all risks and benefits incidental to ownership of the leased item, are capitalised at the lower of fair market value or the present value of the minimum lease payments at the inception of the lease and disclosed as assets taken on lease. Lease payments are apportioned between finance charges and lease liability based on the implicit interest rate or incremental borrowing rate as applicable.

Operating lease payments are recognised as an expense in the profit and loss account on a straight line basis over the period of lease.

K. Employee benefits

Provident fund - Eligible employees receive benefits from the provident fund, which is a defined contribution plan. Both employee and the Company make monthly contributions to the provident fund plan equal to specified percentage of the covered employee's basic salary. The Company has no further obligations under the plan beyond its monthly contributions. Contributions are charged to the profit and loss account on accrual basis.

Gratuity - The Payment of Gratuity Act, 1972 is applicable to the Company for the years presented. The provision for the amount of gratuity payable is based on an actuarial valuation obtained from an independent actuary and correspondingly charged off to the statement of profit and loss during the year. Detailed disclosures as per AS 15 paras 50 to 123 is not applicable since the company is a Public company which is in the process of listing company.

Compensated absences - The policy of the Company is not to carry forward unavailed leave of its employees. Accordingly, no provision for short term compensated absence is made by the Company as at the balance sheet date.

L. Cash flows statement

Cash flows are reported using the indirect method, whereby profit before tax is adjusted for the effects of transactions of non-cash nature and any deferrals or accruals of past or future cash receipts or payments. The cash flows from regular revenue generating, financing and investing activities of the Company are segregated.

2. Taxes on income

a. Provision for current tax is made for the amount of tax payable in respect of taxable income for the year determined in accordance with the Income Tax Act, 1961.

b. The deferred tax charge or credit and the corresponding deferred tax liabilities or assets are recognised using the tax rates and tax laws that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the balance sheet date. BUSINESS OVERVIEW

Finance Buddha, founded in 2012 and promoted by Vivek Bhatia, Parag Agarwal, and Parth Pande, is one of India's leading retail loan aggregation platforms. Initially started in Bangalore, the company has expanded its operations across the country, covering Multiple postal areas. It serves as a bridge between customers and lenders by offering a variety of loan products, including personal loans, business loans, and home loans, through partnerships with wide network of banks and non-banking financial companies (NBFCs).

The founders bring substantial expertise to the company's operations. Parag Agarwal has over 20 years of experience in investment management, having held senior roles in private equity, including Vice President of Investments at Masan Group and Investment Manager at Avigo. Parth Pande, with his background in digital business management, spent a decade at Citibank, where he managed a large retail asset franchise and a significant loan portfolio. Vivek Bhatia, an entrepreneur with experience in retail financial services distribution, has played a pivotal role in developing the company's operations, human resources, and agent network, particularly in South India. Together, their combined experience and leadership form the solid foundation of Finance Buddha's growth.

Finance Buddha operates with a hybrid customer acquisition strategy that integrates both digital channel and a wide network of external agents i.e., agent channel. This allows the company to reach a broad range of prospective borrowers. Once a customer expresses intent, the platform uses its matchmaking technology to compare loan offers from multiple lenders, advising customers on the most suitable options. The company guides them through the entire loan application process, ensuring a seamless experience until the loan is disbursed. While Finance Buddha doesn't take any credit risk (as the decision to approve or reject a loan rest with the lender), it earns a commission from lenders when a loan is successfully disbursed.

A key differentiator for Finance Buddha is its unique hybrid business model, which combines conventional lending with digital lending. This model allows the company to offer a broad range of loan solutions to different customer segments. The Agent model, which relies on a wide network of agents, enables the company to access a curated audience of customers, often with preliminary checks already completed, leading to higher conversion rates. The digital model aspect, powered by the company's proprietary tech platform, enables the processing and enrichment of customer data using both internal and third-party variables, which is then leveraged for future cross-selling and up-selling opportunities.

This hybrid approach offers a significant advantage over competitors. While many of Finance Buddha's peers focus exclusively on either agent or digital models, Finance Buddha's combination of both allows for better customer lifecycle management and more optimized margins. The Agent model focuses on acquiring a large number of customers with lower profits per loan, while the digital model targets fewer customers but with higher profitability. This balanced strategy allows Finance Buddha to grow and remain profitable in the long term, even as it navigates the competitive loan distribution market in India.

With a strong team, a widespread presence across the country, and an extensive network of sales agents, Finance Buddha's expansive reach and personalized service position it as a leader in the Indian loan aggregation space. Its seamless integration of traditional and digital channels, combined with a customer-centric approach, reinforces its role as a key player in the evolving landscape of retail lending in India..

Business Model

FinBud employs a hybrid acquisition model that leverages both traditional (Agent channel) and digital (Digital channel) channels, which provides the flexibility and reach necessary to connect with varied customer demographics.

- Agent-Led Channel : The Agent model capitalizes on a large network of agents to attract customers. Agents conduct preliminary checks and engage with clients in person or over the phone, performing essential initial assessments and connecting them with relevant loan offers. This approach increases conversion rates, reduces customer acquisition costs, and optimizes lender resources.
- Digital Channel : FinBud's digital channel provides a data-driven, automated loan process that enables customers to explore loan products online through our website or mobile app. By leveraging digital marketing strategies and data analytics, we can pre-approve loan amounts for customers based on their financial profiles and streamline their applications.

The increase in revenue from operations can be primarily attributed to 2 factors:

1. Agent increase – The Agent base has increased from 2722 to 3239. This has helped the Company to increase its geographical footprint and customer outreach which has resulted in increased revenue.
2. Lender Addition – The company has increased its lender empanelment from 121 to 141. At any given point in time the Company will always have a segment of existing database which is not serviced by the existing list of empanelled lenders. With addition to new lenders some of this database becomes potentially attractive. In addition, ability to showcase more lenders to customers who are in the pipeline increases the approval rates and thereby results in higher revenue with existing infrastructure

Other Income

In fiscal 2025 other income stands for Rs 22.12 lakhs increased by 465.82% as compared to fiscal 2024 that is Rs 3.91 lakhs. The increase was on account of interest on fixed deposit maintained with Banks.

This increase is primarily due to general increase in the salaries of employees. Key factors contributing to the rise include a Rs 387.26 lakhs increase in salary expenses, driven by higher compensation for both new hires and existing employees, and a Rs 8.14 lakhs increase in contributions to provident and other funds. Staff welfare expenses rose by Rs 41.53 lakhs, reflecting efforts to improve employee benefits, while gratuity expenses increased by Rs 1.59 lakhs, in line with long-term employee benefits commitments.

- Insurance decreased by 66.33% due to the fall in insurance premiums.

This was primarily due to increase in current tax expenses during the year which got increased from Rs 253.89 lakhs in fiscal year 2024 to Rs 367.62 lakhs in the fiscal 2025 and decrease in deferred tax from Rs (17.23) lakhs in fiscal 2024 to Rs (22.15) lakhs in fiscal 2025.

Profit after Tax

Profit after tax as a percentage of total revenue stood at 3.80% for Fiscal 2025 versus 2.97% for Fiscal 2024.

Rational for Increase in the Profit after Tax for the Fiscal Year 2025:

- Robust Revenue Growth: Revenue increased by 17.46%, indicating strong demand, and successful expansion strategies that contributed to higher sales. The increased revenue was driven by higher customer acquisition, expansion in agent/freelancer network, and increase in lender empanelment. This growth in top-line revenue allowed the Company to benefit from economies of scale, leading to improved margins and better absorption of fixed costs
- Enhanced Profitability through Operational and Financial Efficiency: Our core profitability has significantly improved, with the EBITDA margin rising from 5.57% to 6.57%, driven by effective cost control and operational enhancements. Furthermore, the EBIT margin increased from 4.80% to 5.88%, largely due to a decrease in depreciation as a percentage of revenue, which allowed a larger share of revenue to contribute to operating income.
- Enhanced Contribution from Digital Channel-The contribution from the digital channel grew by 22.36%, accounting for 14.54% of total revenue. Digital operations typically have lower marginal costs, thereby positively impacting overall profitability and improving PAT margins.

At any given point in time the Company will always have a segment of existing database which is not serviced by the existing list of empanelled lenders. In addition, ability to showcase more lenders to customers who are in the pipeline increases the approval rates and thereby results in higher revenue with existing infrastructure

Other Income

Furthermore, the EBIT margin increased from 2.46% to 4.80%, largely due to a decrease in depreciation as a percentage of revenue, which allowed a larger share of revenue to contribute to operating income. In addition, finance costs were effectively managed, this resulted in an increased EBT margin from 1.73% to 4.20%, demonstrating our ability to optimize financing expenses in relation to our expanding revenue base.

SEBI/HO/CFD/DIL2/CIR/P/2020/50 dated March 30, 2020 extended the timeline for implementation of UPI Phase II till further notice. Pursuant to SEBI circular no.
